

Andrew Roth | Vice President of Government Affairs

May 17, 2011

Dear Member,

The Club for Growth strongly supports the Republican Study Committee's new "Cut, Cap, and Balance" plan. When the House starts up the debt ceiling debate, the RSC will be pushing for:

1. Immediate spending cuts to halve the deficit
2. A hard spending cap to reduce total spending to 18% of GDP
3. A balanced budget amendment with a spending limit amendment like H.J.Res. 56, sponsored by Rep. Joe Walsh

The RSC is currently sending around a "Dear Colleague" letter that we urge all House Republicans to sign. We also continue to urge House members to co-sponsor Walsh's BBA.

We applaud Speaker Boehner's desire to cut "trillions, not billions," but we want an actual plan to get us there, and we think the RSC's proposal is a great vehicle to do that.

To review and sign the RSC letter, please email cyrus.artz@mail.house.gov.

To co-sponsor the Walsh BBA, please email Will.Cronin@mail.house.gov.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Regards,

Andy