MARSHALL SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT GOALS

Goal 1: By May 2012 all Students will improve their written communication across the curriculum as measured by the Terra Nova 3rd Edition Language Subtest Grades 3-5, Terra Nova 3rd Edition Objective Performance Summary Part 1 – Sub skill Writing Strategies grades 3-5, and a common school wide writing assessment. The targeted skills are grade level specific that include ideas, organization, word choice and conventions.

Goal 2: By May 2012 all Students will increase their targeted problem solving skills using instructional interventions implemented in math and science as measured by the Terra Nova 3rd Edition Objective Performance Summary Part – Mathematics Sub skill problem solving and reasoning, the Terra Nova 3rd Edition Objective Performance Summary Part – Science Sub skill Science Inquiry, and a Common school wide problem solving assessment. Targeted skills are understanding the problem, identifying a plan or strategy, interpreting and analyzing data, and communicate the reasoning and process that was used.

NO STUDENT PICK-UP AFTER 2:45 or AFTER 1:45 ON TUESDAY

I.D. REQUIRED

Dress Code: Fort Campbell Elementary Schools (FCES) (Grades Pre-K – 5)

Fort Campbell elementary school students take pride in being neatly groomed and fashion-conscious. However, they should always be dressed appropriately for the school environment. Students should wear clothing that is appropriate, durable and comfortable. Clothing that is NOT appropriate includes short skirts, tight shorts (also bike shorts or spandex type) and shirts, blouses or tank tops that expose the stomach or exhibit inappropriate language or images. Students are not allowed to wear caps or hats during school hours unless it is part of a school function. Students are not allowed to wear hoodies. Students should wear shoes that are comfortable for walking. Flip flops and house shoes are not permitted. Due to the unique environment in each elementary school, parents and sponsors should address specific questions about school attire with the specific building administrator.
