Introduction

Hunter Army Airfield is committed to building a strong and healthy community that supports Military Service Members, Families, DA Civilians, and Retirees. The Hunter Army Airfield Community Resource Guide is a reference tool for contacting agencies responsible for providing Family assistance. Off-post agencies are occasionally listed to provide a full range of resources available within the Savannah area. The Hunter Army Airfield community is dedicated to providing resources and support to Soldiers and their Families.

HOW THIS RESOURCE GUIDE IS ORGANIZED

The Community Resource Guide is organized as a reference tool for individuals to contact agencies that offer support in different areas. Please use the table of contents to identify a topic and locate available resources in the community. Each page/section is organized as follows:

- I. Overview of topic listed
- II. Primary staff agencies responsible for assistance in providing services
- III. All services available with brief description, address, and phone number (Note: Some services are only located at Fort Stewart, GA)

Audience: Individuals recovering from alcoholism

Description: ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS is a fellowship of men and women who share their experience, strength, and hope with each other so that they may solve their common problem and help others to recover from alcoholism. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking. There are no dues or fees for AA membership; we are self-supporting through our own contributions. AA is not allied with any sect, denomination, politics, organization, or institution; does not wish to engage in any controversy; neither endorses nor opposes any causes. Our primary purpose is to stay sober and help other alcoholics to achieve sobriety.
