

CONGRATULATIONS

Please join the Ramey School family in congratulating all participants! The winner will advance to the next level and compete to represent Ramey School in San Juan, Puerto Rico at the island-wide competition.

The National Geographic Bee, is a nationwide geography competition for U.S. schools with grades four through eight, designed to encourage the teaching and study of geography.