EPA State Climate and Energy Program Technical Forum Federal Mandatory Reporting Rule (MRR) for Greenhouse Gases Background Resources
February 25, 2010

EPA's Portal for the Mandatory Reporting Rule is www.epa.gov/climatechange/emissions/ghgrulemaking.html

Other Resources can be found at:
- Special Provisions for 2010: This fact sheet includes information on a special reporting requirements for the year 2010 including information on Best Available Monitoring Methods (BAMM).

http://www.epa.gov/climatechange/emissions/downloads/2010SpecialProvisi onsInfoSheet.pdf

- Applicability Tool: The Applicability Tool is an application designed to help assess whether an entity might need to comply with the rule.

http://www.epa.gov/climatechange/emissions/GHG-calculator/index.html

- Information Sheets/Checklists for Source Categories: EPA has developed a series of information sheets and checklists that outline how the rule affects the source categories covered by the rule.
  These are found under the tab of "Resources by Subpart".

http://www.epa.gov/climatechange/emissions/subpart.html

- Frequently Asked Questions The FAQs list answers to some of the most commonly asked questions.

http://www.epa.gov/climatechange/emissions/ghg_faq.html