

FRG Members

FRG membership consists of all assigned and attached Soldiers (married and single), their spouses, and children. Extended families, fiancées, significant others, retirees and DA Civilians can and should be included as well.

While all of these individuals are automatically considered to be members of the FRG, participation is voluntary.

