

Sonia E. Campos

Sonia Campos spent five years as Training Coordinator for 900 poll workers at the Bexar County Elections Department in San Antonio, Texas. Bexar County is one of the largest counties in Texas with over 660 voting precincts, 29 cities, 4 Military installations and approximately 890,000 registered voters. She worked approximately 1 year at the Election Assistance Commission as Program and Grants Management Officer in Washington, D.C. Currently, Sonia serves as Program Analyst of 12 South East Regional States for the Federal Voting Assistance Program in Arlington, Virginia.