

Take advantage of... Medicare benefits that can save your sight!

The National Eye Institute, one of the Federal government's National Institutes of Health, developed an information card that can be used to educate your community about the eye health benefits available through Medicare.

These information cards are available in both English and Spanish.

Order yours today at www.nei.nih.gov/medicare.