

DREAM

I kantun tasi ta, i futurata

Chamorro Proverb: Our coasts are our future.

Ka mēbeubeu nō ia mai nā kūpuna

Hawaiian proverb: The customary way, handed down from our ancestors; it is important to learn from the past.

'Alobe bama mui ke ālu like kākou

Hawaiian proverb: No task is too large if we all work together.

Ua logo le fu'a ma le pa'o

Samoa proverb: The rustle of the banners and the beating of the drums were heard; it is important to communicate and share information.

REMEMBER

WORK

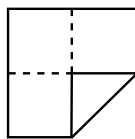

SHARE

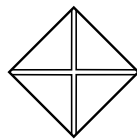

How to Fold Your NOAA/PSC Fortune Teller:

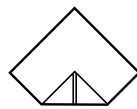

NOAA Pacific Services Center
737 Bishop Street, Suite 2250
Honolulu, Hawai'i 96813
Tel: 808.532.3260

First, cut off this instruction panel. With the paper blank side up, fold in half each way. Next, fold each corner to the center point.

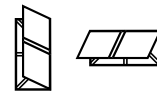

Your fortune teller should now look like this.

Turn your fortune teller over. Fold the four outside corners to the center as shown.

Your fortune teller should now look like this.

Fold the fortune teller in half each way to accent the center folds.

Work your fingers under the flaps to produce your completed fortune teller!