A Fundraiser for Parents And Children Together Coming Wednesday, May 7, 2008

On May 7, volunteers from NOAA Pacific Region will hit the streets of O'ahu with local celebrities to sell special $1 Kids Day editions of The Honolulu Advertiser.

These newspapers will include the Kids Day section packed with parent and child information, plus winning entries from the Kids Day Art & Writing Contest.

Sales of the Kids Day edition will benefit the non-profit organization, Parents And Children Together (PACT), which provides 12 social services programs to help local children, adolescents and their families.
