MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

Subject: POV Car/Truck Covers

1. On March 1, 2007, Fort Bragg received a serve storm with winds between 35-45 mph. The winds ripped through the Installation POV Storage Facilities, both the Main Lot and the Overflow (82D) Lot. Several car/truck covers were lost or damaged; either blew off the vehicle or was ripped off the vehicle. The POV Storage personnel could not recover any covers that were not strongly tied-down.
2. Instructions on tying down cover/truck covers are covered in the Installation POV Storage Facility's SOP, ESOP and the Information Paper that is on the website. It is also briefed to individuals during their in-processing procedures.
3. As of March 5, 2007 the POV Storage Personnel will no longer be responsible for car/truck covers that are not strongly tied-down to their vehicles. It will be the individuals' responsibility to ensure that the cover is strongly tied-down; or have an individual or the rear-attachment personnel check your vehicle periodically.
4. I, _____ understand and agree to the above statement.
