EXPLANATION OF EXCEPTIONS TO COMMERCIAL CONDITIONS

INDEMNITY

CTI takes exception to the requirement for indemnification except in the case where the proximate cause of the injuries, damages, or losses is the "sole" negligence of TVA, its agents or employees. Many states, including Tennessee, now adjudicate claims under tort using a "comparative fault" standard. CTI will indemnify in proportion to its fault, similar to the language at the end of the Warranty of Professional Services section. Under the present language, CTI would have to indemnify TVA fully even if TVA and/or a third party were 90 percent at fault. Underwriters of professional liability insurance carried by professional engineering firms will not insure an indemnity clause beyond a comparative fault standard.

INSURANCE

CTI carries $2 million in professional liability (errors and omissions) insurance instead of the specified $5 million. The premium cost to increase the coverage to $5 million for this job would exceed the total value of the contract. The policy is on a "claims made" basis, as are practically all professional liability insurance policies for engineers. CTI will agree to keep such policy in force for a 2-year period following completion of its work under this contract, avoiding the need to purchase tail insurance.
