ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

SEC CHARGES FORMER EAST HAMPTON INVESTMENT ADVISER AND FUND MANAGER WITH MULTIMILLION DOLLAR FRAUD

The Commission announced today that it charged Evelyn Litwok (Litwok), a former East Hampton investment adviser, with committing securities fraud in connection with the offer and sale of securities in three private investment funds, and with misappropriating more than $3 million of investor funds for her personal benefit. Between 1994 and 1997, Litwok raised more than $8 million from approximately 35 individuals from the sale of limited partnership interests in Kohn Investment LP-1 (LP-1), Kohn Capital LP-33 (LP-33), and a third private investment fund. Litwok misappropriated approximately $3 million, of which approximately $1.3 million went to her personal friend, Dalia Eilat (Eilat), who is named in the Complaint as a relief defendant. Litwok lost the remainder of investor funds through speculative trading in options. Moreover, in selling the investments Litwok made material misrepresentations and omissions concerning, among other things, her prior history as a broker and investment adviser. For example, Litwok failed to disclose substantial judgments entered against her for prior misconduct, including her misappropriation of investor funds. As a result of Litwok's misconduct, numerous investors have lost collectively several million dollars while Litwok enriched herself.

The defendant and relief defendant are as follows: Litwok, age 49, currently resides in Freehold, New Jersey, and is currently working as an independent insurance sales agent. From 1994 to 1998, the period of the conduct at issue, Litwok resided in East Hampton, New York. Litwok was the principal of several corporations through which she conducted her investment advisory business, including Kohn Investment Management, Inc. (the general partner of LP-1), Kohn Capital Management, Inc.-33 (the general partner of LP-33), and Kohn Investment Management II, Inc. (a general partner of Kohn Investment Associates II, an entity that was never formed). From 1984 to 1994, Litwok was associated with various broker-dealers as a registered representative and held Series 7, Series 63 and Series 15 licenses.

Eilat, age 45, is an architect currently residing in New York, New York. Eilat was the president and sole shareholder of Kohn Capital Management, Inc.-33, the general partner of LP-33. During most of 1995 and 1996, Eilat lived in Litwok's house in East Hampton, New York. Eilat received at least $1.19 million from LP-1 and at least $150,000 from LP-33.

The complaint alleges that: From June 1994 to June 1995, Litwok raised approximately $5 million from approximately 20 investors from the sale of limited partnership interests in LP-1, a private investment fund. Litwok lost most of the money in LP-1 through speculative options trading and misappropriated the rest. Litwok misappropriated approximately $2.3 million of LP-1's funds for her personal benefit, including approximately $1.19 million which went to Eilat and businesses controlled by Eilat. Nevertheless, Litwok continued to solicit new investors for LP-1 by falsely blaming LP-1's losses on the fund's broker, and obtained another $525,000 from two investors in January 1997.

From June 1996 to April 1997, Litwok raised approximately $2.7 million from approximately 15 investors from the sale of limited partnership interests in a second private investment fund, LP-33. In offering and selling the investments in LP-33, Litwok made material misrepresentations and omissions of material fact about her prior history as a broker and an investment adviser. In particular, Litwok told investors that she was a very successful broker and investment adviser, but failed to disclose judgments and arbitration awards entered against her for prior misconduct, including her misappropriation of investor funds from LP-1. Litwok lost all of the funds in LP-33 through speculative options trading, but not before she misappropriated approximately $600,000 of the funds for her personal benefit, of which approximately $150,000 went to Eilat's benefit.

Finally, in October 1997, Litwok obtained $300,000 from another investor by materially misrepresenting that she would invest the money and that Litwok and the investor would share in the profits. Again, Litwok misrepresented her history as a broker and an investment adviser. Litwok misappropriated $72,000 of the investor's money and lost the remainder through speculative trading.

The Commission alleges that as a result of the foregoing Litwok violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10-b-5 thereunder, and Sections 206(1) and 206(2) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. The Commission seeks a final judgment: (a) permanently enjoining Litwok from future violations of the federal securities laws; (b) ordering Litwok to disgorge ill-gotten gains, plus prejudgment interest; (c) imposing civil penalties against Litwok; (d) ordering Eilat to disgorge funds equal to the amount by which she was unjustly enriched, plus prejudgment interest; and (e) ordering Litwok and Eilat to provide verified written accountings.

The litigation is pending in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. [SEC v. Evelyn Litwok and Dalia Eilat, Civil Action No. 00-CV-7626, USDC, EDNY] (LR-16843)

COMMISSION OBTAINS SUMMARY JUDGMENT AGAINST DEFENDANTS IN OFFERING FRAUD TARGETING ELDERLY

On December 22, the Honorable Virginia A Phillips, United States District Judge for the Central District of California, granted the Commission's motion for summary judgment against defendants Telsys Communications, Inc. (Telsys), Home Shopping Partners (HSP) and Eleazar I. Heracleopolis (Heracleopolis) for violating the antifraud, securities registration and broker-dealer registration provisions of the securities laws (Sections 5(a), 5(c) and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Sections 10b-5 and 15(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder). The Court permanently enjoined the defendants from committing future violations of the securities laws, and ordered defendant Heracleopolis to disgorge $502,812.67 in misappropriated investor funds, plus prejudgment interest, and to pay a third tier civil penalty of $110,000.

It was undisputed that defendants Telsys, HSP and Heracleopolis raised $1,142,629 from the sale of HSP general partnership interests to at least 37 investors in several states, from at least August 1996 through April 1998. Proceeds from the securities offering were to be used by Telsys to develop and operate an internet "shopping mall" for HSP. In fact, Heracleopolis used most of the money to pay salaries for himself and his wife, make cash gifts to his mother, discharge personal liabilities owed to the Internal Revenue Service and other creditors, purchase and operate a Laundromat, and pay undisclosed commissions to sales representatives. Consequently, only a fraction of the moneys raised were available to establish a viable business. Heracleopolis also selected the elderly as targets for his scam, and used deceptive means to lure investors. [SEC v. HOME SHOPPING PARTNERS, TELSIS COMMUNICATIONS, INC., and ELEAZER I. HERACLEOPOLIS, Civil Action No. ED CV 00-439, VAP, CWx, C.D. Cal.] (LR-16845)

SEC HALTS ALLEGED FRAUDULENT SECURITIES OFFERING BY MIAMI, FLORIDA BOILER-ROOM

The Commission announced that on December 28 it obtained emergency relief halting an alleged ongoing fraudulent securities offering being conducted by a Miami, Florida boiler-room and its principals and telemarketers. Among other things, the Commission's complaint, filed on December 28, 2000 alleges that the boiler-room, Web Hosting Headquarters Partnership (Web Hosting), failed to disclose to investors that it is controlled by individuals with a prior history of defrauding investors, and that it has diverted, and would continue to divert, 62% of funds raised from investors to pay its principals and telemarketers. The complaint further alleges that Web Hosting and the named individual defendants, Donald E. Rhoades, Kenneth R. Grossfeld, Wayne L. Prichason, Eduardo Villar, and Karyn Miller, had already raised at least $2.5 million from defrauded investors, and that its fraudulent sales were ongoing.

At the Commission's request, the United States District Court of the Southern District of Florida entered an order temporarily restraining Web Hosting and the individual defendants from continuing to violate the federal securities laws by fraudulently selling

Web Hosting securities in unregistered transactions and by acting as broker-dealers while not registered with the Commission. The Court also entered orders freezing the defendants' assets, freezing the assets of relief defendants Web Hosting Headquarters, Inc., National Millennium Corporation, Internet Management Group, Inc., Intranet Inc., and Lenica Corp., appointing a Receiver over Web Hosting, and granting other emergency relief.

The SEC's complaint alleges that the defendants have raised at least $2.5 million from at least 132 investors nationwide by making materials misrepresentations and omissions. Among other things, the Commission's complaint alleges that the defendants misrepresented the use of investor funds and Web Hosting's present and likely future success. [SEC v. Web Hosting Headquarters Partnership, et al., Case No. 00-4975-CIV-HIGHSMITH-GARBER, S.D. Fla.] (LR-16846)
