ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

COMMISSION INSTITUTES PROCEEDING AGAINST THREE INVESTMENT ADVISERS FOR FAILING TO MAKE TIMELY YEAR 2000-RELATED DISCLOSURE

The Commission instituted a cease and desist and administrative proceeding against three investment advisers for failing to timely file an updated Form ADV-Y2K. The advisers are: Huber Hogan Consulting, Inc. (Huber Hogan) of Red Bank, New Jersey; Russon Financial Services, Inc. (Russon) of Woodland Hills, California; and Robert C. Sears (Sears) of Northampton, Massachusetts. Form ADV-Y2K was designed to enable the Commission to evaluate the preparedness of investment advisers for the Year 2000. In the Order, the Commission alleges that Huber Hogan, Russon and Sears, each of which reported assets under management of not less than $25 million, were required to and failed to file Part I of Form ADV-Y2K by June 7, 1999. The Order alleges that the respondents violated Section 204 of the Investment Advisers Act and Rule 204-5. A hearing will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations are true and whether cease and desist orders, civil penalties and other sanctions are appropriate against these respondents. (Rel. IA-1816; File No. 3-9985)

INVESTMENT ADVISER FIRMS CENSURED, ORDERED TO CEASE AND DESIST AND FINED FOR FAILING TO MAKE TIMELY YEAR 2000-RELATED DISCLOSURE

On August 26, the Commission issued an order against Amervest Company, Inc. (Amervest) of Los Angeles, California and KMI Realty Advisors, Inc. (KMI) of Indianapolis, Indiana, in a cease and desist and administrative proceeding instituted for failing to timely file an updated Form ADV-Y2K. Form ADV-Y2K was designed to enable the Commission to evaluate the preparedness of investment advisers for the Year 2000. The Order contains findings that Amervest was required to and failed to file Parts I and II of Form ADV-Y2K by June 7, 1999, and that KMI was required to and failed to file Part I of Form ADV-Y2K by June 7, 1999. Amervest and KMI were censured and ordered to cease and desist from committing or causing any violation and any future violation of the ADV-Y2K provisions of the Investment Advisers Act, Section 204 and Rule 204-5. Additionally, Amervest was ordered to pay a $22,500 civil penalty and KMI was ordered to pay a $15,000 civil penalty. Amervest and KMI consented to the Order without admitting or denying the findings contained in the Order. (Rel. IA-1817; File No. 3-9986)

FORMER COLORADO INVESTMENT ADVISER CALVIN BRACE BARRED

On August 26, the Commission instituted, and simultaneously settled, public proceedings pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act, against Calvin Douglas Brace (Brace) of Castle Rock, Colorado. Brace was registered with the Commission as an investment adviser between October 1993 and July 1996. The Order Instituting Proceedings (Order) alleges that Brace was enjoined by the U.S. District Court in a civil case that charged he made false statements concerning "prime bank" securities.

Brace consented to the entry of the Order that contains findings that on August 16 he was enjoined, by consent, from further violations of Sections 5 and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act), Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Specifically, the Commission's civil complaint charged that Brace made numerous false statements concerning, among other things: the existence of prime bank instruments and related trading programs; an investor's ability to achieve rates of return of up to 30 percent a month; the lack of risk to investors; and the use of investor proceeds. It was alleged that Brace used new investor proceeds to pay previous investors as part of a Ponzi scheme, and diverted approximately $858,000 to his personal use.

The Order bars Brace from association with any investment adviser. (Rel. IA-1818; File No. 3-9987)

BASSETT FURNITURE INDUSTRIES, INC., AND THERMAL ENERGY STORAGE, INC. CONSENT TO CENSURE AND CEASE AND DESIST ORDER

On August 26, the Commission instituted and simultaneously settled administrative and cease and desist proceedings against Bassett Furniture Industries, Inc. (Bassett) and Thermal Energy Storage, Inc. (Thermal). The transfer agents were charged with failing to file reports on their year 2000 preparedness as required. Bassett agreed to cease and desist from further violations, be censured, and pay a civil monetary penalty of $5,000. Thermal agreed to cease and desist from further violations, be censured, but not pay a civil monetary penalty based on its inability to pay.

The Commission found that Bassett and Thermal were required to file Part I of Form TA-Y2K by August 31, 1998, to reflect their efforts to address potential Year 2000 problems as of July 15, 1998. The Commission found that they failed to file any part of the Form as of February 8, 1999. Bassett and Thermal consented to the entry of the Order without admitting or denying the Commission's findings. (Rel. 34-41792; File No. 3-9988)

SEC SUES TWO TRANSFER AGENTS FOR FAILING TO FILE AN UPDATED FORM TA-Y2K MAKING YEAR 2000 DISCLOSURES

On August 27, the Commission instituted administrative and cease and desist proceedings against two transfer agents for failing to file required reports regarding their Year 2000 preparedness. The two transfer agents are: Peachtree Stock Transfer and Robert J. Crain, Jr., both of Memphis, Tennessee. The Commission's rules required transfer agents to file an updated Form TA-Y2K with the Commission by April 30, 1999, but the staff alleges that the two named transfer agents failed to file all or part of this Form by August 27, 1999. (Rel. 34-41793; File No. 3-9989)

COURT ENTERS FINAL JUDGMENT ON INSIDER TRADING COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST FORMER WESTELL EMPLOYEE THOMAS ALLEN

On August 5, Judge Joan Gottschall of the U.S. District Court the Northern District of Illinois entered an order of permanent injunction, civil penalties and other equitable relief against Thomas R. Allen. On August 4, the Commission filed a complaint alleging that Allen sold Westell stock while he was in possession of material non-public information regarding Westell's failure to win the award of a substantial contract. The complaint further alleges that Allen's conduct violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Allen consented to the entry of the order without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint. Allen, a California resident, is a former regional sales account manager of Aurora, Illinois based Westell Technologies, Inc. The order imposed the following relief: (1) an injunction against future violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, (2) an order of disgorgement in the amount of $9,114.00, plus prejudgment interest of $2,132.67, and (3) a civil penalty of $9,114.00.

The complaint alleges that in the late summer of 1996, Westell was a finalist in a competitive bidding process to supply certain high-speed data transfer equipment to a consortium of buyers (Consortium). The contracts were substantial and could have greatly increased Westell's revenues. On the morning of Friday, October 4, 1996, Westell learned that the Consortium had chosen another company to supply the equipment. Soon after learning of the Consortium's decision, Allen sold 744 shares of Westell stock. After the close of the market on October 4, the Consortium publicly announced its selection. On Monday, October 7, the next day of trading, Westell's stock price dropped substantially and continued to fall in the following days. Allen thereby avoided a loss of $9,114.00 by selling his stock before the public announcement. [SEC v. Thomas R. Allen, USDC, ND Ill., Civil Action No. 99 C 5086] (LR-16261)

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST ALIREZA HOOSHIARI

The Commission announced that on August 9 it filed a complaint in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division against Alireza Hooshiari, a former resident of Atlanta, Georgia. The complaint alleges that Hooshiari violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act) and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder in connection with his short sale of the securities of Aurora, Illinois based Westell Technologies, Inc. (Westell) while he was in possession of material, non-public information regarding Westell.

The complaint alleges that in of 1996, Hooshiari was employed by BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. (BellSouth) as a senior member of the technical staff in the Science and Technology Group. BellSouth was a member of a consortium of buyers (Consortium) formed to solicit bids to supply certain high-speed data transfer equipment to the Consortium. Hooshiari was one of the BellSouth representatives assigned to evaluate the various bids submitted to the Consortium. In the late summer of 1996, Westell was a finalist in the bidding process. The contracts were substantial and could have greatly increased Westell's revenues. On September 30, 1996, the representatives of Consortium members met to decide on the successful bidder. Shortly after the Consortium had reached its decision, Hooshiari learned that it had chosen a supplier other than Westell to provide the equipment. On October 2 and 3, Hooshiari sold short 650 shares of Westell stock and also bought shares of the successful bidder. After the close of the market on October 4, the Consortium publicly announced its selection. On Monday, October 7, the next day of trading, Westell's stock price dropped substantially and continued to fall in the following days. Hooshiari was able to cover his short position after Westell's price fell thereby earning a profit of $6,814.07.

Hooshiari has consented, without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, to the entry of a Final Judgment and Order of Permanent Injunction, Civil Penalties and Other Equitable Relief (Final Judgment) which will enjoin him from future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. The Final Judgment will also require Hooshiari to disgorge $6,814.07, representing his losses avoided, plus prejudgment interest of $1,594.48. In addition, the Final Judgment will require Hooshiari to pay a civil penalty of $6,814.07 pursuant to Section 21A of the Exchange Act. [SEC v. Alireza Hooshiari, USDC for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division, Case No. 1 99-CV-2043] (LR-16262)

COURT ENTERS FINAL JUDGMENT ON INSIDER TRADING COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST FORMER WESTELL EMPLOYEE CHRISTIAN PETERSEN

On August 5, Judge Elaine Bucklo of the U.S. District Court the Northern District of Illinois entered an order of permanent injunction, civil penalties and other equitable relief against Christian Petersen. On August 4, the Commission filed a complaint alleging that Petersen sold Westell stock while he was in possession of material non-public information regarding Westell's failure to win the award of a substantial contract. The complaint further alleges that Allen's conduct violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Petersen consented to the entry of the order without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint. Petersen, a Florida resident, is a former sales director of Aurora, Illinois based Westell Technologies, Inc. The order imposed the following relief: (1) an injunction against future violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, (2) an order of disgorgement in the amount of $14,994.00, plus prejudgment interest of $3,508.58, and (3) a civil penalty of $14,994.00.

The complaint alleges that in the late summer of 1996, Westell was a finalist in a competitive bidding process to supply certain high-speed data transfer equipment to a consortium of buyers (Consortium). The contracts were substantial and could have greatly increased Westell's revenues. On the morning of Friday, October 4, 1996, Westell learned that the Consortium had chosen another company to supply the equipment. Soon after learning of the Consortium's decision, Petersen sold 744 shares of Westell stock. After the close of the market on October 4, the Consortium publicly announced its selection. On Monday, October 7, the next day of trading, Westell's stock price dropped substantially and continued to fall in the following days. Petersen thereby avoided a loss of $9,114.00 by selling his stock before the public announcement. [SEC v. Christian Petersen, 99 C 5085, USDC, N.D. Ill.] (LR-16263)

FINAL JUDGMENT ENTERED AGAINST CLAUDE SAVAGE

The Commission announced that on August 24 a final judgment of permanent injunction was entered against Claude W. Savage (Savage), of Charlotte N.C., enjoining him from committing future violations of the registration and antifraud provision of the federal securities laws. The final judgment also requires Savage to pay disgorgement of $50,000 but waives payment of additional disgorgement and does not impose civil penalties based on Savage's demonstrated financial inability to pay. Savage consented to the judgment without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint.

The Commission's complaint, filed on March 16, 1998, alleges that, beginning in April 1995, International Heritage, Inc. (IHI), a North Carolina corporation; through Savage and others, solicited individuals throughout the United States to invest in a pyramid scheme. IHI raised more than $150 million from over 155,000 investors. The complaint alleges that interests in the program, which are described by IHI as business centers, are securities. In addition to selling interests in the pyramid scheme, between July 17, 1997 and November 1, 1997, the defendants sold $5 million in notes convertible into shares of IHI common stock. The defendants knowingly misrepresented IHI's financial condition to investors and concealed the fact that IHI was operating a pyramid scheme. Savage was a founder and director of IHI. [SEC v. International Heritage, Inc., Stanley H. Van Etten, Claude W. Savage, Larry G. Smith and International Heritage Incorporated, a Nevada corporation, Civil Action File No. 1:98-CV-0803-TLS, N.D. Ga.] (LR-16264)
