COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

CHAIRMAN ARTHUR LEVITT ANNOUNCES THAT THE COMMISSION'S COMPUTER SYSTEMS ARE YEAR 2000 COMPLIANT

In a statement today, Arthur Levitt, Chairman of the SEC said, "As we enter the final quarter of 1999, more and more people are focusing on the implications of the Year 2000 computer problem. With this in mind, we felt it was important to give you a status report on the securities industry's Year 2000 preparedness.

"Let me begin by reporting that as of August 31, 1999, all the Commission's mission critical and non-mission critical computer systems are remediated, tested and are now Year 2000 compliant. Investors, public companies, and many others can rest assured that the SEC is prepared for the new millennium. This is a testament to the dedicated efforts of a number of SEC employees.

"In addition to making sure our own computer systems are in order, the Commission has been paying close attention to the readiness of the industry. Since 1996, the SEC has undertaken a series of actions to ensure that investors are informed and protected.

"We have, among other things, conducted examinations, issued interpretive guidance, engaged in rulemaking, and brought enforcement actions. We have required extensive disclosure by broker-dealers, non-bank transfer agents, and investment advisers and mutual funds. We made these disclosures available to the public on the Commission's web site. For the small number of companies who have not met the disclosure requirements, we have initiated cases against them. And, the Commission will continue to conduct intensive examinations to validate these disclosures.

"All the while, the industry has taken vigorous steps to address and solve the problem. The firms and exchanges have been actively testing their systems and have developed detailed plans to address unforeseen issues. And, I want to commend the industry for being resolute in its commitment to thoroughly prepare itself for the millennium date change."

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

COMMISSION ISSUES ORDER INSTITUTING PUBLIC PROCEEDINGS PURSUANT TO SECTIONS 15(b) AND 19(h) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934 IN THE MATTER OF STEVEN BARKUS, RESPONDENT

The Commission announced that on August 17, 1999, it issued an Order instituting public administrative proceedings pursuant to Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against Respondent Steven G. Barkus (Barkus).

In the Order, the Division of Enforcement alleges that Barkus was at all relevant times a registered representative with Marsh, Block & Co., Inc., a registered broker-dealer. The Order further alleges that on June 10, 1998, Barkus was permanently enjoined by the United States District Court for the Central District of California, in the case of SEC v. American Telecom Interconnect, et. al., CV 96-2952, DDP, C.D. Cal., from future violations of Sections 5(a), 5(c), and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder.

A public hearing will be held to determine whether the allegations included in the Order are true, to offer Barkus an opportunity to establish any defenses to the allegations, and to determine what remedial sanctions, if any, are appropriate. (Rel. 34-41835; File No. 3-10000)

COMMISSION FILES FINAL JUDGMENT AGAINST MAGGIE HSIN YU ZAHN, ROBERT TSANG AND DAVID TSANG

On September 3, the Commission announced the settlement of an action against three defendants filed on June 22, 1999, in federal court in Los Angeles, which charged insider trading in the securities of Oak Technology, Inc. (Oak), a company located in Sunnyvale, California, and a primary manufacturer of CD-ROM controllers. The Commission's complaint alleges that David D. Tsang (David), while he was the chairman and president of Oak, learned that Oak would have better than anticipated financial results for the quarter that ended December 31, 1995. Before Oak publicly announced the earnings information, David often spoke with his brother Robert D. Tsang (Robert). The complaint further alleges that David, on at least one occasion, conveyed nonpublic information about Oak's business. The day before and the day of Oak's press release, Robert and sister-in-law Maggie I. Hsin Yu Zahn (Maggie) together bought $239,000 in Oak call options. David did not trade. Robert and Maggie sold their Oak options for a two-day profit of $283,000.

All three defendants, without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, consented to the entry of judgments enjoining them from future antifraud violations and ordering them to pay, jointly and severally, $283,000 in disgorgement, plus prejudgment interest and $283,000 in civil penalties. [SEC v. David D. Tsang, Maggie I. Hsin Yu Zahn and Robert D. Tsang; Civil Action No. 99-06351, RSWL, VAPx, C.D. Cal.] (LR-16272)
