COMMISSION SETS ASIDE ACTION OF PACIFIC EXCHANGE TO RESTRICT USE OF HAND-HELD BROKERAGE ORDER ROUTING TERMINALS IN TRADING CROWDS

The Commission has set aside action of the Pacific Exchange (PCX) restricting the use of hand-held brokerage order routing terminals (hand-helds) in its options trading crowds. Hand-helds are computer devices which can receive customer orders directly and which may be carried by floor brokers directly into trading crowds, thereby speeding execution of orders.

In September 1995, PCX established a pilot program for use of hand-helds in options trading crowds. Interactive Brokers LLC (IB) participated in the pilot program, but subsequently was excluded from the pilot program on the grounds that it was taking orders from off-floor broker-dealers in violation of pilot program rules. Because IB was excluded from the pilot program, PCX prohibited its use of hand-helds on the PCX floor.

IB appealed its expulsion from the pilot program to the Commission, which ruled that the pilot program was never submitted to the Commission for its approval as required by relevant laws and regulations, and therefore was not a valid PCX rule. The Commission held further that the restriction by PCX of IB's use of hand-helds was not pursuant to a valid PCX rule and therefore must be set aside. (Rel. 34-39765; File No. 3-9237)

FORMER ARTHUR ANDERSEN PARTNER CONVICTED ON FRAUD CHARGES IN CONNECTION WITH COLONIAL REALTY LIMITED PARTNERSHIP OFFERING

The Commission and the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Connecticut announced that on March 12 Edmund M. Autuori (Autuori), a CPA and former partner of Arthur Andersen & Co., was convicted by a federal jury on 16 fraud-related counts arising from his work for Colonial Realty Company (Colonial), a former real estate syndicator. The jury found that Autuori knowingly assisted Colonial's principals in marketing investments, including the offering of 1200 limited partnership units in the Colonial Constitution Limited Partnership (CCLP). While engaged in these marketing efforts, Autuori knew that the investments offered by Colonial could not realize the promised returns. Autuori will be sentenced on May 28. Each of the counts carries a maximum penalty of five years and a $250,000 fine.

On March 9, 1995, the Commission filed a complaint against Autuori, Jonathan N. Googel, Benjamin J. Sisti, William Candelori, Kevin P. Sisti, Peter J. Curley and Kenneth A. Zak, alleging violations of several antifraud and securities registration provisions of the federal securities laws in connection with Colonial's offering of CCLP units. During the offering period, CCLP interests totaling more than $30 million were purchased by over 700 investors residing in 28 states and the District of Columbia. Autuori is the sole remaining defendant in the Commission's civil action, which was stayed pending resolution of the criminal trial. [U.S. v. Autuori, No. 3:96CR161-ALL, D. Conn.] (LR-15673)
