COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENT

SEC INFORMATION LINE UPGRADED

The SEC Information Line provides general information for investors about the Commission, registration information for participants in the securities industry, and information for users of the Commission's electronic filing system, EDGAR. The information line system was upgraded on Friday, December 16, 1994. The information line now provides voice responses (Audio Text) to information requests and information via facsimile (FAX-on-Demand). The telephone number for the information line, (202)942-8088 remains unchanged.

The new system is easy to use. Just follow the prompts. Access to the employee locator service, the publications unit, and the operator will continue to be available. Callers will be presented with menus and will make their selections by pressing single digits on their telephone keypads. A caller will need to make a maximum of 4 selections by pressing single keys to hear the desired Audio Text selection.

The FAX-on-Demand library contains texts of the various voice response selections and copies of frequently requested forms. A list of documents in the library can be accessed by calling the information line from your facsimile machine. Users of the FAX-on-Demand service are encouraged to obtain a list of available documents every 2 to 3 months as new documents and forms will continue to be added and infrequently requested documents and forms deleted.

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST CONSOLIDATED INVESTMENT SERVICES, INC., NORMAN ROUNDS AND JAMES FAINTER

Administrative Law Judge Glenn Robert Lawrence imposed sanctions on a broker-dealer and two of its principals in the matter of Consolidated Investment Services, Inc., Norman P. Rounds and James L. Fainter

(Administrative Proceeding 3-8312). Judge Lawrence found that Consolidated Investment Services, Inc. (CIS), a registered broker-dealer based in Colorado, employed a registered representative named Theodore McCormick as an independent representative operating a one-man office in El Paso, Texas. During the time the respondents were responsible for supervising McCormick, the judge found McCormick engaged in a Ponzi scheme which defrauded investors of $2.3 million and violated the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. Based on a lack of adequate supervisory procedures and practices, and given the numerous red flags which apparently could have been detected during McCormick's employment, Judge Lawrence concluded that James Fainter, Norman Rounds and their firm, CIS, failed to reasonably supervise McCormick under Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. (Initial Decision Rel. 59)

COMMISSION LETTER SUBMITTED TO DISTRICT COURT ON INADEQUACY OF CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Pursuant to Commission authorization, a letter from the General Counsel of the Commission to the defendants in Frank v. Cooper Industries, Inc., Civil Action No. H-94-0280 (S.D. Tex.) has been submitted to the district court in connection with the defendants' motion to dismiss the complaint for failure to state a claim. Plaintiffs in this class action lawsuit allege that defendants committed securities fraud in violation of Commission Rule 10b-5. The letter expressed the Commission's views that the complaint as formulated did not adequately plead such essential matters as the nature and extent of the negative information the defendants were alleged to have failed to disclose or the time when the alleged negative events occurred. The Commission concluded that, while it took no position on the underlying facts of the case or on whether any fraud may have occurred, a complaint that is as vague and unenlightening as the one in this action, as presently stated, is not, in the Commission's view adequately pleaded and that it is not in the best interest of investors to allow an action based on this complaint to proceed.

The letter is the first instance in which the Commission has acted pursuant to a newly established aspect of its amicus curiae participation in private litigation -- participation in order to assist the courts in dealing with problems that arise primarily at the district court level in class actions and other cases under the securities laws. [Frank V. Cooper Industries, Inc., Civil Action No. H-94-0280, S.D. Tex.] (LR-14356)

PERMANENT INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST BLACKFORD ENERGY COMPANY, RODNEY BLACKFORD, AND THOMAS CHERRY

The Commission announced that on November 29, the Honorable J. Thomas Greene, U.S. District Court Judge, District of Utah, entered an order permanently enjoining Blackford Energy Company and Rodney Blackford from further violations of Sections 5 and 17(a) of the Securities Act, Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act, and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. The order also requires the payment of funds to creditors, the distribution of funds to the investors of Blackford Energy Company, and the assignment to the investors of working interests in wells drilled by Blackford Energy Company in Montana. On October 17, Thomas T. Cherry, a co-defendant, was enjoined from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws.

All defendants consented to the injunctions and other relief without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint. As to all three defendants, disgorgement was ordered but payment of disgorgement waived based upon a demonstrated inability to pay. Likewise, although the appropriateness of civil penalties was noted, such penalties were not imposed based upon the defendants' financial condition. [SEC v. Blackford Energy Company, Rodney Blackford and Thomas T. Cherry, U.S.D.C. UT, Civil Action No. 94-C-269G] (LR-14357)

FINAL JUDGMENTS OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION AND OTHER RELIEF AS TO STEINHARDT MANAGEMENT COMPANY, INC. AND CAXTON CORPORATION

The Commission has filed a complaint in the federal court in Manhattan against Steinhardt Management Company, Inc. (SMC) and Caxton Corporation (Caxton). Simultaneously with the filing of the complaint, SMC and Caxton consented, without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint, to the entry of Final Judgments of Permanent Injunction. SMC and Caxton also entered into settlement agreements to resolve a civil action brought by the U.S. Department of Justice alleging antitrust law violations.

The complaint alleges that from May 23, 1991 through mid-September 1991, SMC and Caxton manipulated the market for the two-year United States Treasury notes auctioned in April 1991 in violation of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act.

The proposed Final Judgments and antitrust settlements require that SMC and Caxton pay a total of $76 million, of which $41 million shall be paid as civil penalties and civil asset forfeitures and $35 million shall be paid as disgorgement. The proposed Final Judgments and antitrust settlements require that SMC pay a total of $40 million and Caxton pay a total of $36 million. The Final Judgment as to SMC requires that SMC pay $6.5 million as a civil penalty and $21 million as disgorgement. The Final Judgment as to Caxton requires that Caxton pay $9.5 million as a civil penalty and $14 million as disgorgement. The Justice Department settlement agreements require that Caxton and Steinhardt each pay $12.5 million as civil asset forfeitures. [SEC v. Steinhardt Management Company, Inc. and Caxton Corporation, U.S.D.C., SDNY., 94-Civ 9040, RPP] (LR-14358)

EUTRO GROUP HOLDING, INC., CONSENTS TO INJUNCTION

The Commission announced that it filed a complaint on December 16 in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia against Eutro Group Holding, Inc. (Eutro), of Jupiter, Florida. The Commission in its complaint seeks to compel Eutro to file its delinquent periodic reports and to enjoin Eutro from further violations of Section 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act and Rules 12b-25, 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder. Simultaneously with the filing of the Commission's complaint, Eutro consented to the entry of a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction. In its consent, Eutro admitted that it had failed to file its three most recent Annual Reports for its fiscal years ended September 31, 1991 through 1993, and three Quarterly Reports, filed late five Quarterly Reports and failed to file eight Notifications of Late Filing. [SEC v. Eutro Group Holding, Inc., Civil Action No. 94-CV02701, Sullivan, D.D.C.,] (LR-14359)
