ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

SALVATORE RUSSO BARRED FOR THREE AND ONE-HALF YEARS BASED ON PERMANENT INJUNCTION

The Commission announced the entry of an Order Instituting Public Administrative Proceedings, Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions against Salvatore C. Russo (Russo), the former accounting manager, controller and vice-president of Stotler and Company (Stotler), a government securities broker-dealer registered with the Commission, and former general partner of Stotler and Company, the Partnership, Stotler's predecessor.

Russo consented to the issuance of the Order, without admitting or denying the Commission's findings, except that Russo, in a complaint filed against him and others on May 27, 1992, was permanently enjoined on August 4, 1993, without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, except as to jurisdiction, from violating and/or aiding and abetting violations of the antifraud, broker-dealer registration, books and records, net capital, customer protection, proxy and reporting provisions of the federal securities laws (SEC v. Thomas M. Egan, et al., Civil Action No. 92 C 3480, N.D. Ill.).

The Commission's Order bars Russo for three and one-half years from association with any broker, dealer, investment company, investment adviser, or municipal or government securities broker or dealer with the provision that he may apply to become so associated after three and one-half years. (Rel. 34-32938)

TITAN/VALUE EQUITIES GROUP, INC. SANCTIONED

The Commission has issued an Order Instituting Public Proceedings, Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (Order) against Titan/Value Equities Group, Inc. (Titan) of Tustin California, a broker-dealer registered with the Commission. The findings and sanctions are in accordance with an Offer of Settlement (Offer) submitted by Titan whereby it consented to the Order, without admitting or denying the findings therein.

Pursuant to the Order and Offer, the Commission found that in July 1989, Titan failed to supervise Mark L. Rosenberg (Rosenberg), a registered representative associated with Titan, in connection with Rosenberg's misappropriation of $167,160 from a Titan customer account. Titan failed to have written procedures requiring its customers' written authorization for wire transfers of their funds to outside accounts or requiring a Titan employee to verify the ownership of outside accounts to which transfers of customer funds were made. On January 5, 1993, the Commission issued an Order barring Rosenberg from the securities industry (Admin. Proc. File No. 3-7592).

The Commission's Order censures Titan and requires certain undertakings, including the retention of a "Special Review Person" to determine the adequacy of Titan's compliance procedures relating to, among other things, execution of transactions, cashiering functions and supervision of branch office activities. The Order further requires Titan to implement the Special Review Person's recommendations. (Rel. 34-32939)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

DARRELL RANDAL EUBANK ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on June 18, 1993 the Honorable James L. Graham, United States District Judge of the Southern District of Ohio, entered a final judgment and order of permanent injunction against Defendant Darrell Randal Eubank enjoining him from future violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. In the final judgment, the Court ordered Darrell Eubank and Relief Defendant Sandra Eubank, who are now in bankruptcy, to disgorge $42,000 plus prejudgment interest. In addition, the Court provided that individual investors may enforce the order pursuant to Rule 71 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

In the final judgment, the Court noted the appropriateness of civil penalties. The Commission's complaint alleged that Darrell Eubank violated federal securities laws by misappropriating and converting investor moneys for his personal use, instead of purchasing securities as instructed by the investors. [SEC v. Darrell R. Eubank, NO. C2-92-944, S.D. Ohio.] (LR-13803)

FINAL JUDGMENT OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST DIVERSIFIED CAPITAL SALES AND MARKETING, INC. AND DOMINIC ESPOSITO

The Commission announced that on September 21 a final judgment of permanent injunction and other relief (final judgment) was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida against Diversified Capital Sales and Marketing, Inc. (Diversified Capital) and Dominic Esposito (Esposito) (collectively, defendants) of Longwood, Florida. The defendants consented to the entry of the final judgment without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint.

The final judgment provides for the disgorgement of defendants' ill-gotten gains but waives payment of disgorgement based on defendants' demonstrated financial inability to pay. The final judgment also notes the appropriateness of civil money penalties but does not impose such penalties based on defendants' demonstrated financial inability to pay.

On September 3, the Commission filed a complaint against the defendants, alleging violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5, thereunder. The complaint alleged that from at least February 1990 until at least June 1992, at least nine individuals invested at least $857,000 with the defendants, to purchase various securities. Rather than purchase securities, however, the defendants used investors' funds to make "interest" payments to investors and for other personal use. [SEC v. Diversified Capital Sales and Marketing, Inc., et al., Case No. 93-734-Civ-Orl-22, M.D. Fla.] (LR-13804)

PERMANENT INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST NANCY BRANDSTATTER

The Commission announced that on September 20 the Honorable Judge Thelton E. Henderson, U.S. District Judge for the Northern District of California, entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction against defendant Nancy Brandstatter (Brandstatter), formerly a registered representative of a registered securities broker dealer.

The Final Judgment permanently enjoins Brandstatter from violating, directly or indirectly Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Brandstatter consented to the entry of the Final Judgment without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint.

The complaint alleges that from September 1990 through March 1992, Brandstatter engaged in a scheme to defraud seven of her customers of approximately $136,557. Brandstatter's conduct with respect to two of her customers consisted of obtaining their approval to have checks issued to her from their account, representing to them that she would use the proceeds to invest in securities. Instead of purchasing the securities, Brandstatter converted the funds to her own use. With respect to the other five customers, Brandstatter executed unauthorized sales of mutual funds in their securities accounts, obtained possession of the checks from such sales and altered such checks to make them payable to herself without the knowledge or consent of the customers. [SEC v. Nancy Brandstatter, Civil Action No. C-93-3413, TEH, N.D. Cal.] (LR-13805)
