EXCHANGE COMMISSION

COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

JAMES L. SANDERS NAMED REGIONAL ADMINISTRATOR OF LOS ANGELES REGIONAL OFFICE

David S. Ruder, Chairman of the Commission, today announced the appointment of James L. Sanders as Regional Administrator of the Commission's Los Angeles Regional Office. In announcing the selection, Chairman Ruder said, "Throughout his career, James Sanders has demonstrated excellent judgment, strong litigation skills, and effective leadership. I am confident that he will do an outstanding job for the Commission."

Mr. Sanders is an Assistant U.S. Attorney with the Major Fraud Unit of the Los Angeles U.S. Attorney's Office. Previously, he was an Assistant U.S. Attorney in Chicago, where he was a member of the Special Prosecutions Division. He began his legal career in 1974 with the Commission in its Chicago Regional Office following graduation from the University of Tulsa Law School. While with the Commission, he became a Branch Chief in the enforcement section and was responsible for a number of major securities cases. As an Assistant U.S. Attorney, he has handled cases involving insider trading, stock market manipulation, RICO, bribery of public officials, income tax evasion, and mail fraud. (Press Release 89-31)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

NASD ACTION AGAINST LSCO SECURITIES, INC. AND FIRM OFFICERS AFFIRMED

The Commission affirmed sanctions imposed by the NASD on LSCO Securities, Inc., a Wichita, Kansas brokerage firm, Bob F. Larmer, its president, Arthur Sykes, Jr., a director and registered principal, Russell I. Teel, vice president, and Pearl I. Hummel, cashier. The NASD censured Respondents, fined LSCO and Larmer $7,500, jointly and severally, imposed a separate $1,000 joint and several fine on LSCO, Larmer, and Teel, and suspended Larmer from association with any NASD member for ten business days.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that, in 1985, LSCO, Larmer, and Sykes were responsible for charging customers unfair markups in sales of Merge Tech, Inc. stock; that LSCO, Larmer, and Teel were responsible for sales literature sent to customers by the firm's registered representatives that violated NASD standards, and for failing to observe NASD supervisory requirements with respect to such literature; and that LSCO, Larmer, and Hummel failed to comply with net capital, customer protection, and recordkeeping requirements.

In affirming the sanctions assessed by the NASD, the Commission stated that respondents' violations "involved rules that provide important safeguards for the protection of public investors." It also noted that the firm and Larmer had previously been disciplined twice by the NASD. (Rel. 34-26779)

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST GLENN GOLENBERG AND LAWRENCE ADLER

On May 8, Judge Bell from the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio entered Judgment in SEC v. Glenn Golenberg, et al., filed on May 1 [see LR-12074]. Subsequently, on May 8, the Commission instituted separate administrative proceedings against Golenberg and Lawrence Adler under Section 15(b)(6) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Simultaneously, Golenberg and Adler offered Offers of Settlement for the purpose of disposing of the issues raised by these proceedings.

In accepting their Offers of Settlement, the Commission found that Golenberg and Adler had been permanently enjoined by the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio from future violations of the antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act.

Based upon these findings, the Commission ordered that Golenberg and Adler are barred from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, investment company, or municipal securities dealer with a right to reapply after four years and two years, respectively. (LR-12069; 34-26795; 34-26796)
