RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

FULL COST ACCOUNTING

The Commission adopted amended rules for recognition of gain or loss on sales and other transfers of oil and gas properties by registrants using the full cost method of accounting. The revised rules generally prohibit income recognition in sales or other conveyances of oil and gas properties, and clarify the circumstances in which income may be recognized for management fees and compensation relating to contract services. (Rel. 33-6525)

COMMENTS REQUESTED ON AMENDMENTS TO REGULATIONS E AND A

The Commission proposes for public comment amendments to Regulations E and A under the Securities Act of 1933. The proposed amendments would: (a) increase the aggregate offering price of all securities of an issuer that may be sold within a 12-month period under Regulation E from $500,000 to $2,500,000; (b) increase the aggregate offering price of all securities of an issuer that may be sold under Regulation E without the use of an offering circular from $50,000 to $100,000; (c) permit the use of a preliminary offering circular in certain underwritten public offerings under Regulation E between the date of filing the notification and the date on which the company's securities may be sold; (d) permit certain investment companies under the Investment Company Act of 1940 to use Regulation E, and preclude business development companies from using Regulation A; and (e) revise Schedule A of Regulation E for small business investment companies and add Schedule B to that Regulation for use by business development companies.

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

ATTORNEYS FEES AWARDED IN RHODE ISLAND CONTEMPT ACTION

The Boston Regional Office announced that on April 16 Senior Judge Raymond J. Pettine, U.S. District Court in Rhode Island, after hearings, accepted a stipulation of Richard F. Chipperfield and MPG, Ltd. in an Order to Show Cause why they should not be held in civil contempt of Court. Judge Pettine issued the Order to Show Cause on March 28.

According to the stipulation, the defendants agreed that sufficient facts exist to establish a prima facie case for a finding of civil contempt against them. The stipulation further provided that any imposition of sanctions would be delayed for 120 days to give the defendants an opportunity to comply with certain orders of the Court, requiring an accounting, names of investors, a designation of the defendants' bank accounts, and disposition of investors' funds, rendered on July 15, 1983.

The defendants agreed, under the stipulation, to pay the Government $1,000 for its reasonable expenses and attorneys' fees in having to bring the contempt proceeding. (SEC v. Richard F. Chipperfield, et al., Civil Action No. 81-0572P, DC RI). (LR-10351)
