U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

September 10, 1984

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

JAMES R. STEPHENS BARRED

The Commission announced the simultaneous institution and settlement of administrative proceedings against James R. Stephens, barring him from association with any broker-dealer, municipal securities dealer or investment company. The administrative proceedings arise out of the entry of a permanent injunction against Stephens on August 6, 1984. Under the administrative settlement, Stephens is barred from association with any broker-dealer, municipal securities dealer or investment company. (Rel. 34-21296) (See LR-10517 under "Civil Proceedings".)

INSTITUTION AND SETTLEMENT OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST SMITH & STEPHENS ACCOUNTANCY CORPORATION

The Commission announced on September 10 the institution and settlement of public administrative proceedings against Smith & Stephens Accountancy Corporation and James J. Smith under Rule 2(e) of the Rules of Practice. Smith, a certified public accountant and a 50% shareholder of Smith & Stephens, was primarily responsible for the audit and other accounting services performed by Smith & Stephens for Corda Diversified Technologies, Inc.

In accepting the offers of settlement submitted by the respondents, the Commission found that the firms' report on Corda's financial statements was materially false and misleading in that it stated that: its examination was made in accordance with GAAS; and Corda's financial statements were presented in accordance with GAAP, when in fact such statements were not true. The Commission also concluded that Smith & Stephens' failure to withdraw its accountant's report in a timely manner, after concluding it was false and misleading, demonstrated a serious lack of professional responsibility.

Based upon these findings, the Commission ordered that the respondents be permanently denied the privilege of appearing or practicing before the Commission, provided, however, that they may apply to resume appearing and practicing before the Commission after two years from the date of the Order, upon a satisfactory showing of certain conditions and qualifications. (Accounting and Auditing Enforcement Release No. 39) (See LR-10518 under "Civil Proceedings".)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

JAMES R. STEPHENS ENJOINED

The Commission announced the entry of an Order of Permanent Injunction on August 6 by Judge Shirley Wohl Kram in the U.S. District Court, New York, against James R. Stephens, president and owner of MV Securities, Inc. Stephens, who consented to the injunction without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations, was enjoined from violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, from violating any rule promulgated by the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board, and from violating the record-keeping provisions of the securities laws.

The complaint, filed on February 21, alleged that Stephens encouraged his salesmen to use high pressure sales techniques, including the use of inexperienced and unregistered salesmen who were trained and encouraged to tell customers false and misleading stories concerning the price, safety and availability of municipal bonds, and who sold highly speculative bonds issued by the Washington Public Power Supply System to investors, including retirees, seeking secure and safe investments. The Commission also claimed that Stephens charged "fraudulently excessive and unfair prices" on many transactions, attracted customers through deceptive advertising, and altered, falsified, and destroyed many of the firm's records. MV Securities is presently in liquidation under a Securities Investors Protection Corporation receivership. (SEC v. MV Securities, Inc., a/k/a Mult-Vest Securities, Inc., et al., U.S.D.C. S.D.N.Y., 84 Civ. 1164 (CLB)). (LR-10517)

CORDA DIVERSIFIED TECHNOLOGIES, INC., OTHERS ENJOINED

The Commission announced on September 10 the filing of a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia against Corda Diversified Technologies, Inc., Richard J. Corline, Deno C. Benedetti, Smith & Stephens Accountancy Corp. and James J. Smith seeking a permanent injunction and other ancillary relief, restraining and enjoining the defendants individually from further violations of the antifraud and reporting provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Complaint alleges that certain financial statements contained in filings by Corda with the Commission were materially false and misleading and not in accordance with GAAP in that assets, shareholders' equity and net income were materially overstated. In addition, these filings omitted to disclose the related party nature of certain transactions.

Simultaneously with the filing of the complaint, the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia entered Final Judgments of Permanent Injunction by Consent against Corda, Smith & Stephens and Smith enjoining them from further violations of the antifraud and reporting provisions of the Exchange Act. (SEC v. Corda Diversified Technologies Inc., et al., U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 84 CIV 2726.) (LR-10518) (See AAER-39 under "Administrative Proceedings".)
