ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST STALVEY & ASSOCIATES, INC., OTHERS

The Commission announced the institution of public administrative proceedings, pursuant to Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Section 14(b) of the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970, against Stalvey & Associates, Inc. (Registrant), a broker-dealer with offices in Jackson, Mississippi; Guilford Sam Stalvey, Jr. (Stalvey), its president, also of Jackson, Mississippi; and Charles Randall Bell, its vice-president and a salesman, of Brandon, Mississippi.

The Order for Proceedings alleged violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws by Registrant, Stalvey and Bell including that securities and funds of customers were misappropriated. The Order additionally alleged that Registrant violated and Stalvey aided and abetted violations of the recordkeeping and net capital provisions.

A permanent injunction was entered against Registrant, Stalvey and Bell for violations of the antifraud, recordkeeping, and net capital provisions of the securities laws in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi. Also, a SIPC trustee was appointed to liquidate Registrant. The respondents consented to the relief without admitting or denying the allegations.

A hearing will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations against the respondents are true and, if so, to decide what remedial action would be appropriate. (Rel. 34-19553)

Without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint the defendants have agreed to the entry by the Court of a Final Order requiring them to comply with the beneficial ownership reporting provisions of the Exchange Act. (SEC v. Canran Associates I, L.P., et al., Civil Action No. 83-113, USDC, District of Delaware). (LR-9908)

COMPLAINT NAMES CANAL-RANDOLPH CORPORATION, OTHERS

The Commission announced on March 1 the filing of a civil action in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware against Canal-Randolph Corporation alleging violations of the reporting and proxy provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 12b-20, 13a-1, 14a-3 and 14a-9 thereunder, and against Rea Brothers Plc. and The Scottish and Mercantile Investment Company, Plc. alleging violations of the beneficial ownership reporting provisions of the Exchange Act and Rules 13d-1 and 13d-2 thereunder. Without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint, the defendants have agreed to the entry by the Court of a Final Order requiring them to comply with the various sections of the Exchange Act they were alleged to have violated. Moreover, Rea Brothers and Scottish have undertaken to adopt, implement and maintain internal procedures, policies and controls which are reasonably designed to assure that they comply with Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act including, among other things, the retention of counsel experienced in securities laws to consult and advise them and the establishment of appropriate review procedures to ensure that all filings pursuant to Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act are made timely. (SEC v. Canal-Randolph Corporation, et al., Civil Action No. 83-112, USDC, District of Delaware). (LR-9909)

COMPLAINT CHARGES FRAUD, MANIPULATION, MARGIN AND REPORTING VIOLATIONS
WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF GILMAN SERVICES, INC.

The Boston Regional Office announced that on March 1 a civil action was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida seeking injunctive and other relief against Bionic Instruments of Delaware, Inc., Biofin Financial Corp. and Orange Blossom Enterprises, Inc. (OBE), all of North Miami, Florida, for violations of the margin, antifraud, antimanipulation and beneficial ownership reporting provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; Michael A. Light and Michael F. Dermer, also of North Miami, for violating the margin, antimanipulation and antifraud provisions and aiding and abetting violations of the beneficial ownership reporting provisions; and William C. Johnson, individually and doing business as Johnson Management & Co., Inc. of Washington, DC, for violations of the antifraud provisions.

The complaint alleges that Dermer and Light, controlling officers and directors of the corporate defendants, used 20 accounts at 10 broker-dealers to create a false appearance of active trading in common stock of Gilman Services, Inc., a Massachusetts wholesale pharmaceutical distributor currently in bankruptcy, and raised the price of Gilman shares from $6 to $25 per share. Acting for the defendant corporations, Dermer and Light issued numerous worthless checks to brokers and failed to pay for stock purchases and maintenance calls (checks totalling over $490,000), and caused losses to brokers of over $385,000 in unsecured debit balances. Dermer and Light and the corporate defendants, on the other hand, sold Gilman shares and withdrew excess equity from margin accounts in sums totalling over $1,575,500. Finally, Schedule 13D and amendments thereto reporting acquisition of over 5 percent of Gilman shares were inaccurate and incomplete as to material facts relating to number of participants, shares purchased and source of funds, among other facts.

It was alleged that Johnson prepared and disseminated to over 5,000 brokers and members of the public two research reports containing projections for Gilman's sales and earnings and product marketing which had no reasonable basis in fact without disclosing that he had purchased over 89,000 shares of Gilman for himself, his mother and clients on whose profits he was to receive a 20 percent fee, which shares were thereafter sold at high prices realizing over $244,000 in profits, in violation of the antifraud provisions. (SEC v. Bionic Instruments of Delaware, Inc., et al., 83-0487-CIV-EBD, USDC, S.D. FL). (LR-9911)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

CONSTANTINE SPYROPOULUS PLEADS GUILTY

The New York Regional Office announced that on January 31 Constantine Spyropoulos pleaded guilty before the Honorable Charles S. Haight, Jr., U.S. District Judge, to conspiring to violate the securities and mail fraud laws by trading in 17 stocks based on material, non-public information stolen from Morgan Stanley & Co. and Kuhn Loeb & Co. concerning unannounced corporate takeovers. Spyropoulos admitted in his plea that he conspired with two investment bankers, employees of Morgan Stanley and Kuhn Loeb, to profit on confidential information those bankers received as trusted employees of Morgan Stanley and Kuhn Loeb. In particular, the indictment charges Spyropoulos with aiding and abetting two former investment bankers, E. Jacques Courtois, Jr. and Adrian Antoniu, in violating their fiduciary duties to Morgan Stanley and Kuhn Loeb not to reveal the takeover plans and other facts about their clients. The evidence in the trial of another conspirator, James M. Newman, showed that Courtois and Antoniu covertly disclosed to Spyropoulos, Newman and Franklin Carniol confidential information regarding impending mergers and acquisitions being structured and negotiated by either Morgan Stanley or Kuhn Loeb on behalf of over 15 companies. The indictment charged Newman, Spyropoulos and Carniol purchased securities in the target companies prior to public announcement of the takeovers by utilizing secret bank accounts in Switzerland, Luxembourg and the Caribbean. As a result, Spyropoulos and the other defendants were able to make sizeable purchases and sales in the target companies' stocks without detection. Newman was convicted last May by a jury of violating the mail fraud statutes, and was subsequently sentenced to a year and a day in jail, a $10,000 fine, and three years probation. Antoniu pleaded guilty to this scheme in November 1980 and sentenced by Judge Charles E. Stewart to three months imprisonment and a $5,000 fine. Courtois now lives in Columbia, and Carniol lives in Europe. The U.S. Attorney is seeking their extradition. Sentencing of Spyropoulos is scheduled for March 30, 1983. (U.S. v. Constantine Spyropoulos, a/k/a "Patrick," 82 Cr. 166 (CSH)). (LR-9910)
