CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

TERRY E. KIRCHNER ENJOINED

The Denver Regional Office announced that on March 21 the Honorable John P. Moore, U.S. District Judge for the District of Colorado, entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction with the consent of Terry E. Kirchner of Denver from violating the antifraud and transfer agent provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The transfer agent provisions relate to: (1) recordkeeping requirements; (2) the time during which turnaround must be made of all securities classified as routine items; (3) notice required to be given to the defendant's issuer clients for failure to meet turnaround requirements; and (4) limitations on transfer agent functions when failing to comply with turnaround requirements. The complaint alleged, among other things, that Kirchner failed to disclose to shareholders, prospective shareholders and issuers of such securities that First Independent Stock Transfer Agent, Inc. was insolvent, had overissued securities and failed to cancel securities. As ancillary relief, Kirchner was enjoined from association with any registered transfer agent other than as a supervised employee in a non-supervisory position and a non-proprietary capacity. (SEC v. First Independent Stock Transfer Agent, Inc., et al., USDC, Colorado, Civil Action No. 81-JM-1645). (LR-9957)

WACO FINANCIAL, INC. AND J. JEROME PREVATTE ENJOINED

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on March 16 a permanent injunction was entered against WACO Financial, Inc., a registered broker-dealer located in Kalamazoo, Michigan, and J. Jerome Prevatte, WACO's president, treasurer and majority shareholder. The defendants were permanently enjoined from effecting securities transactions while not qualified under Section 15(b)(7) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 15b8-2 thereunder. WACO's disqualification resulted from its expulsion on March 19, 1981 from the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD). The Court found that WACO, aided and abetted by Prevatte, continued to engage in the securities business after the NASD action. The Commission's motion for summary judgment was granted and the defendants' motion was denied. (SEC v. WACO Financial, Inc., et al., USDC WD MI, Civil Action No. K81-152CA4). (LR-9958)

FRANCIS EUGENE MOONEY, JR. INDICTED

The Atlanta Regional Office and the U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Tennessee announced that on March 8 a federal grand jury sitting in Knoxville, Tennessee, returned a five-count indictment charging Francis Eugene Mooney, Jr., formerly a Knoxville, Tennessee broker-dealer and investment adviser, with violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The indictment charges that from about December 1975 to May 1977, Mooney engaged in a scheme to defraud his broker-dealer customers and investment advisory clients, by converting their funds to his own personal use and benefit, mailing false confirmations reflecting the purchase of securities, and issuing checks to them which purported to represent dividends or other returns on their investment. The indictment further charges that Mooney was a fugitive from justice from about May 1977 to November 1980. Trial has been set for May 18, 1983. (U.S. v. Francis Eugene Mooney, Jr., CR. No. 3-83-23, USDC ED TN). (LR-9956)
