CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

LOUIS R. WOLFISH CHARGED IN CRIMINAL CONTEMPT ACTION

The New York Regional Office announced that on May 24 the Honorable Edward Weinfeld, U.S. District Judge, signed an order to show cause which instituted a criminal contempt action against Louis R. Wolfish. Wolfish is charged with violating the terms of a preliminary injunction which was entered on November 23, 1982, by Judge Weinfeld in a pending civil injunctive action. The Commission had instituted the civil action to enjoin Wolfish from violating the broker-dealer registration provisions and the antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. According to the complaint, Wolfish, who acted under numerous aliases and through various unincorporated associations, had acted as a dealer and had defrauded numerous customers when he solicited the sale of unmatured State of Israel securities.

The papers filed in support of the order to show cause charge Wolfish with continuing to solicit the sale of unmatured State of Israel securities. Furthermore, the papers allege that Wolfish acted under a new alias, Charles Sinclair, and through a new unincorporated association, Israel Bonds Pre-Maturity Redemption Center, in an effort to conceal his violations of Judge Weinfeld's order. The order to show cause directed Wolfish to appear on June 7, 1983 at 2:15 p.m. Because the Commission, after diligent efforts, was unable to personally serve Wolfish with the order to show cause, a second order to show cause was signed by Judge Weinfeld on June 7, extending the period of time for service and directing Wolfish to appear on June 28, 1983 at 2:15 p.m. (U.S. ex rel. SEC v. Wolfish, 83 Cr. Misc. #1, S.D.N.Y. [EW]). (IR-10033)
