ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

HOWARD GOODSTEIN BARRED

The Commission accepted an Offer of Settlement submitted by Howard Goodstein regarding a public administrative proceeding instituted under Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. In his Offer of Settlement, Goodstein, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's Order for Public Proceedings, consented to findings that during the five year period ending with November 1982, he wilfully violated the antifraud provisions of the securities laws. He did this by: obtaining money from customers of the broker-dealer that employed him by falsely representing the identity of the securities that would be purchased with such funds; falsely representing the nature of trading activities in customers' accounts; misapplying customers' funds and securities; sending customers fictitious confirmations and other statements which materially misrepresented and falsely stated the amount and identity of the securities purportedly held on behalf of customers and the value of such securities; and diverting genuine confirmations and monthly statements to post office boxes he controlled.

Under his Offer of Settlement, Goodstein was barred from association with any broker, dealer, municipal securities dealer, municipal securities broker, investment adviser or investment company. (Rel. 34-20298)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

COMPLAINT NAMES JACK DLUGASH AND REGINA DLUGASH

On October 27 the Commission filed a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York against a tax accountant, Jack Dlugash, and his wife, Regina Dlugash, of Brooklyn, New York. The complaint alleges that the Dlugashes effected securities trades in violation of the broker-dealer registration provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Exchange Act. According to the complaint, the Dlugashes: engaged in at least 241 municipal securities transactions worth at least $2.6 million since December 1, 1975; made a profit of $25,000 on 32 transactions for ten investors during a year and a half; and mislead investors about their profits and their role as a broker-dealer. The complaint asks for an injunction, an accounting, and disgorgement. (SEC v. Jack L. Dlugash and Regina Dlugash, individually and d/b/a Douglas Enterprises and Dewey Enterprises, USDC EDNY, Civil Action No. 83-4750). (LR-10182)
