AMERICAN AGRONOMICS SUSPENSION TO TERMINATE

LIBRARY

The SEC announced that the suspension of exchange and over-the-counter trading in the securities of American Agronomics Corp., a Florida corporation with its principal office located in Tampa, Florida will terminate at midnight (EDT) on June 1, 1975.

Trading in American Agronomics securities was originally suspended by the Commission on January 3, 1975 because of questions which had arisen regarding the market activity in the securities of American Agronomics Corp.

The Commission filed a civil complaint in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia on March 19, 1975 against James E. Corr III, Neica Lee Corr (the Corrs), Alfred L. Hamilton, Clinton Youmans, Joseph Sonberg and Dennis Ormond. The Commission's complaint seeks to enjoin the defendants from violations of the antifraud, anti-manipulative, margin and reporting provisions of the securities laws in connection with a scheme to manipulate upwards the price of the common stock of American Agronomics Corporation, listed on the American Stock Exchange. In addition, the Commission filed a motion for preliminary injunction and other relief on March 19, 1975.

On May 5, 1975, the Federal Court in the District of Columbia ordered, pending the Court's decision on the Commission's motion for preliminary injunction, among other things, that the above named defendants not directly or indirectly purchase, sell or otherwise dispose of any shares of common stock of American Agronomics, nor vote the shares or attempt to otherwise exercise control over American Agronomics, nor withdraw or use any balances in any of their brokerage accounts that result from transactions in the shares of common stock of American Agronomics. The Community Bank of St. Petersburg and the Metropolitan Bank of Tampa have also agreed not to dispose of any shares of American Agronomics which they hold as collateral for the Corr Group's loans, in either public or private transactions, without prior notice to the Commission. (Rel. 34-11438)

CROWN CORP. TRADING HALTED

The SEC today announced the suspension of exchange and over-the-counter trading in the securities of Crown Corp., a Hawaiian corporation located in Honolulu for a ten-day period beginning on May 23 and terminating at midnight (EDT) June 1, 1975.

The suspension was initiated at the request of the company pending certain disclosures with respect to previously filed financial statements. (Rel. 34-11439)

ADDITIONAL ACTION ON FIVE TRADING SUSPENSIONS

The SEC has announced the suspension of (a) exchange and over-the-counter trading in the securities of BBI, Inc., for the further ten-day period May 24 - June 2, inclusive; and (b) exchange and over-the-counter trading in the securities of Equity Funding Corp., and over-the-counter trading in the securities of Zenith Development Corp., Industries International, Inc. and Westgate California Corp. for the further ten-day period May 27 - June 5, inclusive.
