Occurrences of Significant Interest (1)

Injury – 1 occurrence at 1 site

- NA – Nevada Test Site (Significance Category 3). On January 21, two NSTec employees, who were riding in a privately-owned vehicle (pickup truck), were involved in a non-occupational accident on Mercury Highway with an NSTec snow plow. As a result of the accident, the passenger in the pickup truck sustained injuries and is being treated at a Las Vegas hospital. The driver of the snow plow was not injured. At the time of the accident, a winter storm warning was in effect for the Nevada Test Site. Heavy snow, mixed with rain, and wind gusts up to 40 mph caused low visibility and potentially hazardous driving conditions. An accident investigation is currently in progress.
