

Honorable Curtis V. Gómez

Chief Judge, U.S. District Court of the Virgin Islands

Curtis V. Gómez is the Chief Judge in the District Court of the Virgin Islands. He began his judiciary service in 2005. Prior to becoming a federal judge, Chief Judge Gómez was a federal prosecutor in the Office of the United States Attorney for the District of the Virgin Islands and the Office of the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia. Prior to that, Chief Judge Gómez was in the private practice of law with the law firms of Patton Boggs, LLP, in the District of Columbia, and Dudley, Topper & Feuerzeig in the Virgin Islands.

Chief Judge Gómez serves on several committees of the Third Circuit Judicial Council. He is a member of the Committee on Case Management, the Library Committee, the Facilities and Security Committee, and the Automation and Technology Committee.

Chief Judge Gomez received his Juris Doctorate from Harvard Law School and a Bachelor of Arts Degree from George Washington University.