Background

The Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) is making it easier to search for SEVP-certified schools via the Studyinthestates.dhs.gov website.

Purpose

Until recently, SEVP maintained two locations for listing and searching SEVP-certified schools: the SEVP home page on the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement website and the new Study in the States website.

In order to offer the most user-friendly experience, SEVP is removing the school listing from the SEVP home page on ICE.gov and will now host the SEVP-certified school search solely on the Study in the States website. On Study in the States, users may search for certified schools by name, city or state. This provides stakeholders with a simplified interface while offering expanded flexibility.
