

SCAPA-DMCC-HASC 2012 Dinner

When: Tuesday, May 15, 2012; 6:30 PM – 8:30 PM

Who: SCAPA, DMCC, and HASC members and friends

Where: Benihana

Address: 1200 5th Avenue, only three short blocks from the conference hotel (one block down the hill, turn right)

Since first opening its doors in 1964, Benihana has become the longest running dinner show in the world. Benihana restaurants are traditional Japanese hibachi steakhouses, which feature the Japanese cooking method known as "teppanyaki." From mouth-watering steak, tender chicken, succulent seafood and garden-fresh vegetables to a variety of sushi and other Japanese favorites, your meal is prepared fresh and served by a performing chef, right before your eyes.
