Lesson Title: Perform Duties during a Combatives Tournament

Condition: Given a scenario to act as a referee, corner man, judge, or safety during a Combatives tournament.

Standard: The student will perform the duties as a referee, judge, scorekeeper, and timekeeper:

Referee – The student must enforce the rules, ensure the overall safety of the fighters is observed at all times, starts and stops the match, awards points, issue warnings to competitors for rules infractions, disqualifying competitors, communicating to the officials and signaling the match winner.

Judge – The student must be knowledgeable of all general and referee match results, referee signals, illegal techniques, basic bracketing techniques, competitor divisions, and durations. To maintain impartiality, judges will not be allowed to confer with one another.

Scorekeeper – The student must keep track of the points awarded by the referee, ensure the fight is stopped if the score is not tied, and tell the referee which fighter won the match.

Timekeeper – The student will keep track of the time during the bout, starting and stopping the official clock for time-outs, and ensure the fight is stopped if the score is not tied.
