

2013 FORT MCCOY SPRING TURKEY INFORMATION AND APPLICATION

APPLICATION RESTRICTIONS: If you were selected for a 2013 State of Wisconsin Spring Turkey Hunting Permit, you are NOT ELIGIBLE to receive a 2013 Fort McCoy Spring Turkey Hunting Permit. Individuals who are selected for a State of Wisconsin Spring Turkey Hunting Permit normally receive notification by early February. Applicants selected for a Fort McCoy spring turkey permit will be compared with the DNR spring turkey winner list and removed from the Fort McCoy selection if selected for a state zone.

Email Address: The Wildlife Program has used hunter email addresses to send hunter surveys and other information. Survey responses are a valuable tool used by the Wildlife Program to ensure we maintain healthy, viable wildlife populations and maintain a quality hunting opportunity. If you would like to participate in email surveys, please be sure to include your email address on your application form and print legibly.

New Spring Turkey Season Application and Selection Process Established

The application and selection process for all 2013 spring turkey permits has been revised in line with Department of the Army regulations. Permit selection will no longer be based on a first-come-first-serve basis. Selection will be based on a random drawing of all applications within each Category (A, B or C) with separate permit allotments established for each category (see Category definition on application information sheet).

- Category allotments are: (A) 25%, (B) 15%, and (C) 60%.
- Category allotments will be used for each hunting period and based on the applicant's first choice.
- Category A applicants will be drawn first followed by Category B and then Category C. Any Category A or B applicants not selected in the initial drawing will be included in the Category C drawing for that same period.
- Any Category A or B allotments not filled during the selection process will be available for the Category C drawing.
- All initial drawings will be conducted based on the applicant's first choice of hunting periods. Any permits remaining after the initial drawings will be awarded through random drawing to applicants not selected in the initial drawing and based on their second, third, fourth, fifth and/or sixth choice.
- Applications must be received or postmarked by the deadline date (February 11, 2013). Applications received or postmarked after February 11, 2013 will be eligible for any remaining permits on a first-come-first-serve basis.
- Applications can be mailed or dropped off at the Permit Sales Office.
- Group applications will still be accepted. Further information is listed in the application instructions.

2013 Hunting Information:

- The Youth Mentorship Program (ages 10 and 11) will be continued for the 2013 Fort McCoy Spring Turkey Hunting Seasons: Participants (youth and mentors) must follow WDNR guidelines and rules associated with the mentorship program. Youth must possess a valid Fort McCoy spring turkey permit for the hunting period they intend to participate in. Mentors must possess a valid Fort McCoy spring turkey permit for any 2013 Fort McCoy hunting period. Applicants must follow application procedures and be selected for a Fort McCoy spring turkey permit. The "Youth Mentorship" box must be marked on the application. Additional information regarding the Youth Mentorship Program will be provided to youth who have been selected for a Fort McCoy Spring quota permit. Youth applications can be submitted along with, and in addition to, any group application and does not count towards the maximum of 4 applications per envelope. Youth permit fees will be the same price as adult.
- Fort McCoy does not have a separate Youth Hunt.
- Season quotas are based on training area availability.
- TIME PERIODS: The statewide spring turkey season has changed to a 7-day time period running Wednesday - Tuesday. Fort McCoy will continue with its 5 day seasons running Monday – Friday (except the first season which is 3-days) to take into consideration of potential increase in military training on the weekends and to provide a 2-day period open for scouting with no disruption to hunters.
- WISCONSIN CONCEALED CARRY LAW: Wisconsin has passed a law allowing individuals to carry a concealed weapon with the proper permit. However, in accordance with Army Regulation 190-11 para 4-5, possession of a concealed weapon is prohibited on Fort McCoy. Carrying a concealed weapon will result in criminal prosecution, fines, revocation or suspension of hunting, fishing, trapping and firewood cutting privileges, and/or other disciplinary actions.
- WISCONSIN ACT 51: All weapons must be unloaded and cased when transported on Fort McCoy.
- CONSERVATION PATRONS LICENSES: Hunters that typically purchase a Conservation Patrons License should wait until notification is received from the Permit Sales Office before purchasing a license. This will allow time to update the WI DNR database so that a Spring Turkey carcass tag can be issued if selected. The ALIS vendor cannot issue a carcass tag to Conservation Patrons after the license is purchased
