The Fundaments of Exporting Webinar Series Continues -- October 3, 2012

The Fundamentals of Exporting Webinar Series Continues

Created by the Foreign Trade Division of the U.S. Census Bureau, the official source of U.S. export and import statistics and the Foreign Trade Regulations (FTR), this free in-depth webinar series provides the tools necessary for a strong foundation in the fundamentals of exporting. Topics include trade data, export regulations, electronic export reporting and much more.

Getting it Right the First Time – How to Avoid Common Penalties
Wednesday, October 3, 1 p.m. (EDT)

The U.S. Census Bureau is the official source for U.S. export and import statistics and is responsible for issuing regulations governing the reporting of all export shipments from the United States. This seventh webinar of the eight-part series explores the most common penalties and best practices to avoid those penalties. If your company is exporting physical goods from the United States, it is important to remain compliant with the Foreign Trade Regulations. In this webinar, you will learn about the two types of penalties, what parties are responsible in an export transaction and what outreach and education tools are available.
