

U.S. Department of Commerce
Charter of the Federal Economic Statistics Advisory Committee

- 1. Committee's Official Designation. Federal Economic Statistics Advisory Committee
- 2. Authority. The Secretary of Commerce, having determined that it is in the public interest in connection with the performance of duties imposed by law on the Department of Commerce, and with the concurrence of the General Services Administration, hereby establishes within the Economics and Statistics Administration (ESA) the Federal Economic Statistics Advisory Committee, in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA), as amended, 5 U.S.C. App. 2.
- 3. Objectives and Scope of Activities. The committee will advise the Directors of ESA's two statistical agencies, the Bureau of Economic Analysis (BEA) and the U.S. Census Bureau (Census), and the Commissioner of the Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) on statistical methodology and other technical matters related to the collection, tabulation, and analysis of federal economic statistics.
- 4. Description of Duties. The committee will function solely as an advisory committee to the senior officials of BEA, Census and BLS (the agencies) in consultation with the committee chairperson. Important aspects of the committee's responsibilities include, but are not limited to:
 - a. Recommending research to address important technical problems arising in federal economic statistics
 - b. Identifying areas in which better coordination of the agencies' activities would be beneficial
 - c. Establishing relationships with professional associations with an interest in federal economic statistics
 - d. Coordinating, in its identification of agenda items, with other existing academic advisory committees chartered to provide agency-specific advice, for the purpose of avoiding duplication of effort
- 5. Agency or Official to Whom the Committee Reports. The committee will report to the Under Secretary for Economic Affairs, who, as head of ESA, will coordinate and collaborate with the agencies.
- 6. Support. The committee will be administratively housed at the Economics and Statistics Administration (ESA), U.S. Department of Commerce. ESA will provide necessary funding support for the committee.
- 7. Estimated Annual Operating Costs and Staff Years. The estimated annual cost of operating the committee is approximately $120,000, which includes .5 person years of staff support. Members of the committee will not be compensated for their services but will be reimbursed for travel expenses upon request.

8. Designated Federal Officer. The Under Secretary for Economic Affairs will appoint a full-time or permanent part-time career employee to serve as the Designated Federal Officer (DFO). The DFO will approve or call all of the committee meetings, prepare and approve all meeting agendas, attend all committee meetings, adjourn any meeting when the DFO determines adjournment to be in the public interest, and chair meetings when directed to do so by the Under Secretary of Economic Affairs. Technology such as videoconferencing and teleconferencing may be used for committee meetings.

9. Estimated Number and Frequency of Meetings. The committee will meet approximately twice per year, budget permitting. Special meetings may be called when appropriate.

10. Membership and Designation. The committee will consist of approximately 14 members who serve at the pleasure of the Secretary. Members shall be nominated by the Department of Commerce, in consultation with the agencies, under the coordination of the Under Secretary for Economic Affairs, and appointed by the Secretary. Committee members shall be economists, statisticians, survey methodologists, and behavioral scientists and will be chosen to achieve a balanced membership across those disciplines. Members shall be prominent experts in their fields, and recognized for their scientific and professional achievements and objectivity.

- a. Members shall serve as Special Government Employees (SGEs) and shall be subject to ethics rules applicable to SGEs.
- b. Members shall serve three-year terms, except that, in order to enhance the continuity of the committee's work, one-third of the initial appointments will be for a one-year term and one-third will be for a two-year term. Thus, no more than one-third of the committee's members will be appointed each year thereafter. Members may be reappointed to any number of additional three-year terms.
- c. Should a committee member be unable to complete a three-year term, a new member may be selected to complete that term for the duration of the time remaining or begin a new term of three years.
- d. The agencies, by consensus agreement, shall appoint the chairperson annually from the committee membership. Chairpersons shall be permitted to succeed themselves.

11. Subcommittees. ESA may establish such subcommittees from among the committee members as may be necessary. All subcommittees shall be subject to the provisions of FACA, the FACA implementing regulations, and applicable Department of Commerce guidance.

12. Recordkeeping. Records of the committee, formally and informally established subcommittees, working groups or other subgroups, shall be handled in accordance with General Records Schedule 26, Item 2 or other approved agency records disposition schedule. These records shall be available for public inspection and copying, subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

13. Duration/Termination. The committee will terminate two years from the date of filing of this charter with the appropriate United States Senate and U.S. House of Representatives Oversight Committees, unless it is earlier terminated or renewed by proper authority.
