INTRO

People usually get incarcerated because they were arrested for a crime or an offense, or because they were charged with a probation or parole violation. Some of the questions in this survey will ask about things that happened before the arrest or violation that led to you being incarcerated. Other questions will ask about things that have happened since the arrest or violation that led to you being incarcerated. But I understand there may have been some other event or reason that led to you being incarcerated. When I ask about the arrest or violation that led to you being incarcerated, please think about whatever event led to you being incarcerated, whether it was an arrest or not.

B3d. [IF in prison] About how much time altogether did you spend in jail before being admitted to prison for the sentence you are currently serving? Please include all of the time you spent in jail after the arrest or violation that led to you being incarcerated, including time waiting for trial, waiting to be sentenced, and waiting to be transferred to a prison.

- 1 Less than 30 days
