Re: RE: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation in GN 09-191, GN 10-127

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Tuesday, July 13, 2010, Kyle McSlarrow, President & CEO of the National Cable & Telecommunications Association (“NCTA”), James W. Cicconi, Senior Executive Vice President External & Legislative Affairs, AT&T Inc., and Thomas J. Tauke, Executive Vice President, Public Affairs, Policy and Communications, Verizon, had a discussion with Edward Lazarus, FCC Chief of Staff, Bruce Gottlieb, Chief Counsel to FCC Chairman Genachowski, and Zachary Katz, Deputy Chief, FCC Office of Strategic Planning and Policy Analysis. (Mr. Tauke joined the discussion by phone.) They continued to discuss details relating to prospective legislation regarding open Internet principles. Specifically, the discussed items included:

- Prohibitions on blocking legal content and interfering with attachment of non-harmful devices;
- Possible legislative language for a nondiscrimination principle;
- Treatment of specialized services;
- Transparency of broadband Internet service performance and network management practices;
- An enforcement regime to protect consumers; and
- Application of some aspect of the principles to wireless platforms.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Neal M. Goldberg
