

processing, it will also be available for inspection at the offices of the Board of Governors. Interested persons may express their views in writing on the question whether the proposal complies with the standards of section 4 of the BHC Act, including whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices" (12 U.S.C. 1843). Any request for a hearing on this question must be accompanied by a statement of the reasons a written presentation would not suffice in lieu of a hearing, identifying specifically any questions of fact that are in dispute, summarizing the evidence that would be presented at a hearing, and indicating how the party commenting would be aggrieved by approval of the proposal.

Unless otherwise noted, comments regarding the applications must be received at the Reserve Bank indicated or the offices of the Board of Governors not later than May 2, 1996.

Hoechst AG; Prohibited Trade Practices, and Affirmative Corrective Actions

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission.

ACTION: Consent Order.

SUMMARY: This consent order settles alleged violations of federal law prohibiting unfair or deceptive acts or practices and unfair methods of competition arising from the $7.1 billion merger of Hoechst AG and Marion Merrell Dow, Inc. The consent order, among other things, requires Hoechst—a pharmaceutical firm—to provide Biovail Corporation International with a letter of access to the toxicology data necessary to secure additional FDA approvals for a hypertension and cardiac drug called Tiazac (diltiazem). It also requires Hoechst to return any confidential information obtained from Biovail; to refrain from using the information; to dismiss a patent infringement lawsuit filed by Marion Merrell Dow regarding Tiazac; to withdraw a citizen petition Marion Merrell Dow filed with the Food and Drug Administration relating to Tiazac; and to agree not to file any subsequent litigation against Biovail regarding diltiazem. In addition, the consent order requires Hoechst to divest the rights to either Trental or Beraprost (two drugs intended to treat intermittent claudication, a painful leg cramping condition); to divest the rights to Pentasa (or the generic formulation), which is one of two oral forms of mesalamine used to treat ulcerative colitis and Crohn's Disease; and to divest the rights to Rifadin (or the generic formulation), which is used to treat tuberculosis. The required divestitures have to be made to Commission-approved entities, within nine months of the date of the order.

DATES: Complaint and Order issued December 5, 1995.¹
