FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

[File No. D09272]

Home Shopping Network, Inc.; Home Shopping Club, Inc.; HSN Lifeway Health Products, Inc.; Proposed Consent Agreement With Analysis To Aid Public Comment

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission.

ACTION: Proposed consent agreement.

SUMMARY: In settlement of alleged violations of federal law prohibiting unfair or deceptive acts or practices and unfair methods of competition, this consent agreement, accepted subject to final Commission approval, would require, among other things, the St. Petersburg, Florida-based television advertiser and two of its subsidiaries to have competent and reliable scientific evidence before making any claim that a food, dietary supplement, or drug can cure, treat, or prevent any disease or has any effect on the structure or function of the human body and before making any claims about the performance, benefits, or efficacy of any smoking-cessation program, product, or service. The consent agreement settles allegations that the respondents made a number of health-related claims about four mouth sprays without having the necessary evidence to back them up. The stop-smoking spray and three vitamin sprays were marketed during an advertising program called "Spotlight on Ruta Lee" which was produced and disseminated by Home Shopping Club.

DATES: Comments must be received on or before September 23, 1996.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be directed to: FTC/Office of the Secretary, Room 159, 6th St. and Pa. Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Lisa B. Kopchik, Federal Trade Commission, 6th and Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, S-4002, Washington, DC 20580. (202) 326-3139. Joel Winston, Federal Trade Commission, 6th and Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., S-4002, Washington, DC 20580, (202) 326-3153.

Public comment is invited. Such comments or views will be considered by the Commission and will be available for inspection and copying at its principal office in accordance with Section 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice (16 CFR 4.9(b)(6)(ii)).

Analysis of Proposed Consent Order To Aid Public Comment

The Federal Trade Commission has accepted an agreement to a proposed consent order from Home Shopping Network, Inc. ("HSN"), Home Shopping Club, Inc. ("HSC"), and HSN Lifeway Health Products, Inc. ("Lifeway").

The proposed consent order has been placed on the public record for sixty (60) days for receipt of comments by interested persons. Comments received during this period will become part of the public record. After sixty (60) days, the Commission will again review the agreement and the comments received and will decide whether it should withdraw from the agreement or make final the agreement's proposed order.

This matter involves alleged deceptive representations for three spray vitamin products and a spray smoking cessation product. The products at issue are Life Way Vitamin C and Zinc Spray, Life Way Antioxidant Spray, Life Way Vitamin B-12 Spray, and Life Way Smoke-Less Nutrient Spray. The Commission issued a complaint on March 2, 1995 charging that HSN, HSC and Lifeway created and disseminated a series of television advertisements called "Spotlight on Ruta Lee" on which the Life Way Spray Products were sold. These advertisements featured Ruta Lee as a celebrity show host and were seen on the Home Shopping Club, commercial programming shown on the Home Shopping Network's cable and broadcast channels.

The Commission's complaint against HSN, HSC, and Lifeway was withdrawn from adjudication on May 14, 1996, prior to commencement of the administrative hearing, so that the Commission can consider the proposed order. Previously, the Commission had issued a consent order against Ruta Lee and Live-Lee Productions, Inc. to settle charges against Ruta Lee for her role in making and disseminating these advertisements (Live-Lee Prods, Inc., Docket No. C-3620, Oct. 10, 1995).

HSN is a holding company for numerous subsidiaries which are engaged primarily in the marketing, advertising, sale and distribution of consumer products through broadcast and cable television. HSC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of HSN, produces commercial television programming. Lifeway is a wholly-owned "second tier" subsidiary of HSN which sells vitamins and other health-related products.

According to the FTC complaint, the respondents made claims 1) that the vitamins in the Life Way Spray Products are more fully absorbed by the human body than vitamins taken in pill form; 2) that the Vitamin C and Zinc Spray would heal mouth lesions, cold sores, and cracking of the corners of the lips, and prevent common colds; 3) that the Vitamin B-12 Spray would treat hangover symptoms and increase users' energy; and 4) that the Antioxidant Spray would ensure the proper functioning of the immune system, reduce the risk of contracting infectious diseases, and prevent facial lines. The complaint also alleges that the respondents made claims that the Smoke-Less Nutrient Spray would enable smokers, regardless of how long they have smoked or how much they smoke, to stop smoking easily; and would satisfy the physiological urge to smoke a cigarette and eliminate the quivering, anxiety and weight gain that go along with quitting smoking. The complaint alleges that the respondents did not have a reasonable basis for these representations at the time they were made.

The proposed consent order contains provisions designed to prevent the respondents from engaging in similar acts and practices in the future.

Part I of the proposed order prohibits the respondents from representing that any food, food or dietary supplement, or drug can or will cure, treat, or prevent any disease or have any effect on the structure or function of the human body, unless, at the time they make the representation, they possess and rely upon competent and reliable scientific evidence that substantiates the representation.

Part II of the proposed order prohibits respondents from making any representation about the performance, benefits or efficacy of any smoking cessation product, program, or service, unless, at the time they make the representation, they possess and rely upon competent and reliable scientific evidence that substantiates the representation.

Part III allows the respondents to make representations for any product that are specifically permitted in labeling for that product by regulations issued by the Food and Drug Administration ("FDA") under the Nutrition Labeling and Education Act of 1990. Part IV allows the respondents to make representations for any drug that are permitted in labeling for that drug under any tentative final or final FDA standard or under any new drug application approved by the FDA.

Parts V through IX require the respondents to keep copies of advertisements making representations covered by the order; to keep records concerning those representations, including materials that they relied upon when making the representations; to provide copies of the order to certain of respondents' personnel; to notify the Commission of changes in corporate structure; and to file compliance reports with the Commission. Part X provides that the order will terminate after twenty (20) years under certain circumstances.

The purpose of this analysis is to facilitate public comment on the proposed order, and it is not intended to constitute an official interpretation of the agreement and proposed order or to modify in any way their terms.

Donald S. Clark,

Secretary.

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission.

SUMMARY: In settlement of alleged violations of federal law prohibiting unfair or deceptive acts or practices and unfair methods of competition, this consent agreement, accepted subject to final Commission approval, would require, among other things, the Atlanta-based supermarket chain owner to divest a total of 30 supermarkets or supermarket properties in 14 communities throughout Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Massachusetts within 30 days of the Commission's final approval of this settlement.
