

FS-1 and Vancol, the respondents have represented, directly or by implication, that testimonials from consumers appearing in advertisements for FS-1 and Vancol reflect the typical or ordinary experience of members of the public who have used the products. The complaint charges that the respondents failed to possess and rely upon a reasonable basis for these representations.

The proposed order contains provisions designed to remedy the alleged violations. The proposed order also provides for consumer redress of $100,000. In the event that consumer redress is not feasible, the proposed order provides that the funds will be deposited in the United States Treasury.

Part I of the proposed order requires the respondents to cease from making any representation that any product or program provides any weight loss benefit, is an effective treatment for obesity, reduces hunger or suppresses the appetite, decreases the intestinal absorption of calories, reduces serum cholesterol, provides, can provide or helps provide any other health benefit or has any effect on cellulite or on the user's body measurements, unless they possess and rely upon competent and reliable scientific evidence that substantiates the representation. Part II(a) of the order prohibits the respondents from misrepresenting the existence, contents, validity, results, conclusions, or interpretations of any test or study. Part II (b) and (c), respectively, prohibit misrepresentation of the amount of fiber or any nutrient contained in a product and prohibit false claims that a product is a high source of fiber or any other nutrient. Part II(d) prohibits misrepresentation of the research activities or other activities of National Dietary Research or any other organization affiliated with the respondents.

Part III of the proposed order prohibits the respondents from disseminating any advertisement for any product or program that misrepresents, in any manner, that it is not a paid advertisement. Part IV of the order prohibits representations that testimonials represent the typical or ordinary experience of consumers who use the product, unless the representations are true and the respondents have competent and reliable evidence that substantiates such representations. An additional provision in this Part permits the respondents to use a truthful, non-typical testimonial, if they disclose clearly and prominently in close proximity to the testimonial what the generally expected performance would be in the depicted circumstances, or the limited applicability of the endorser's experience to what consumers may generally expect to achieve, that is, that consumers should not expect to experience similar results.

Parts V and VI of the proposed order contain provisions permitting certain claims that are approved for labels by the FDA, under either the Nutrition Labeling and Education Act, a tentative final or final monograph, or any new drug application approved by the FDA.

Part VII of the proposed order requires the respondents to pay $100,000 in consumer redress, or if that is impracticable, to pay the same amount to the U.S. Treasury.

Parts VIII, IX, X, XI and XII of the proposed order are compliance reporting provisions that require the respondents to: retain all records that would bear on the respondents' compliance with the order; to notify the Commission of any changes in the structure of the corporate respondents that may affect their compliance obligations under the order, or any changes in the business affiliations of the individual respondent relating to the advertising, offering for sale, sale or distribution of consumer products; to distribute copies of the order to the corporate respondents' operating divisions and to those persons responsible for the preparation and review of advertising material covered by the order; and to report to the Commission their compliance with the terms of the order.

The purpose of this analysis is to facilitate public comment on the proposed order. It is not intended to constitute an official interpretation of the agreement and proposed order or to modify in any way their terms.

"Eligible consumer" shall mean any person who purchases, or has purchased, an Acu-Stop 2000 from respondents; who returns, or has returned, the device to respondents requesting a refund prior to ninety (90) days after the date this Order becomes final; and who has not previously received a refund. "Eligible consumer" shall not include persons who request a credit from a credit card issuer and who do not otherwise request a credit or refund from respondents. Respondents shall provide to the Commission all information necessary to identify eligible consumers and to verify their eligibility.

A. Not later than the date this Order becomes final, respondents shall deposit into an escrow account, to be established by the Commission for the purpose of receiving payments due under the provisions of this Order ("escrow account"), the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00). These funds, together with accrued interest, less any amount necessary to pay the costs of administering the escrow account and refund program provided herein, shall be used by the Commission or its representative to pay refunds to those eligible consumers who purchased an Acu-Stop 2000 from respondents prior to January 1, 1995. Any funds remaining in the escrow account after all refunds to consumers under this subparagraph have been paid shall be paid to the United States Treasury.

At any time after this Order becomes final, the Commission may direct the escrow agent to transfer funds from the escrow account, including accrued interest, to the Commission to be distributed as herein provided. Respondents shall be notified as to how the funds are distributed, but shall have no right to contest the manner of distribution chosen by the Commission. The Commission, or its representative, shall, in its sole discretion, select the escrow agent. Costs associated with the administration of the escrow account and refund program provided herein, if any, shall be paid from funds in the escrow account.

Respondents relinquish all dominion, control and title to the funds paid into the escrow account, and all legal and equitable title to the funds shall vest in the Treasurer of the United States and in the designated consumers. Respondents shall make no claim to or demand for the return of the funds, directly or indirectly, through counsel or otherwise; and in the event of bankruptcy of respondents, respondents acknowledge that the funds are not part of the debtor's estate, nor does the estate have any claim or interest therein.

B. Respondents shall pay from their own funds refunds to all eligible consumers who are not paid from the escrow account provided herein. This requirement shall include:

(1) all refund requests from eligible consumers who purchased an Acu-Stop 2000 after January 1, 1995, and

(2) all refund requests under subparagraph A that exceed the amount available in the escrow account.

All refunds required in subparagraph B.1 shall be paid within thirty (30) days after the receipt of the request, or within thirty (30) days after the date this Order becomes final, whichever is later. All refunds required in subparagraph B.2 shall be paid within thirty (30) days after notification to respondents that the funds available in the escrow account to pay refunds have been depleted.

VI

B. A list containing the name, mailing address, and purchase price for each eligible consumer who requested a refund;

C. The name and last known address of each consumer who requested a refund but was refused and the reason for each refusal to refund; and

It is further ordered the respondents Barry A. Weiss, Roger Franklin, and their agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any partnership, corporation, subsidiary, division, joint venture or other device, do forthwith cease and desist from advertising, promoting, offering for sale, selling, or distributing any weight-loss or weight-control product or program or any acupressure device to the general public, unless, prior to advertising, promoting, offering for sale, selling, or distributing to the general public any such product, respondents Weiss and Franklin first obtain a performance bond in the principal sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000). Said bond shall be conditioned upon compliance by respondents Weiss and Franklin with the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, and with the provisions of this Order. The bond shall be deemed continuous and remain in full force and effect as long as respondents Weiss and Franklin continue to advertise, promote, offer for sale, sell, or distribute any weight-loss or weight-control product or program or any acupressure device, directly or indirectly, to the general public, and for at least five (5) years after they have ceased any such activity. The bond shall cite this Order as the subject matter of the bond and provide surety against respondents' failure to pay consumer redress or disgorgement as set forth herein. Such performance bond shall be an influence agreement providing surety issued by a surety company that is admitted to do business in a state in which respondents Weiss and Franklin are doing business and that holds a Federal Certificate of Authority as Acceptable Surety on Federal Bonding and Reinsuring.

Respondents Weiss and Franklin shall provide a copy of such performance bond to the associate director of the Federal Trade Commission's Division of Enforcement, 6th Street & Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580, prior to the commencement of any business for which such bond is required.

Provided, however, in lieu of a performance bond, respondents Weiss and Franklin may establish and fund, pursuant to the terms set forth herein, an escrow account in the principal sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) in cash, or such other assets of equivalent value, which the Commission, or its representative, in its sole discretion may approve.

Respondents Weiss and Franklin shall maintain such amount in that account for as long as they continue to advertise, promote, offer for sale, sell, or distribute any weight-loss or weight-control product or program or any acupressure device, directly or indirectly, to the general public, and for at least five (5) years after they have ceased any such activity. Respondents Weiss and Franklin shall pay all costs associated with the creation, funding, operation, and administration of the escrow account. The Commission, or its representative, shall, in its sole discretion, select the escrow agent. The escrow agreement shall be in substantially the form attached to this Order as Exhibit A.

The performance bond or escrow agreement shall provide that the surety company or escrow agent, within thirty (30) days following receipt of notice that a final judgment or an order of the Commission against respondent Weiss and/or respondent Franklin for consumer redress or disgorgement in an action brought under the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act has been entered, or, in the case of an order of the Commission, has become final, finding that Weiss and/or Franklin has violated the terms of this Order or the Federal Trade Commission Act, and determining the amount of consumer redress or disgorgement to be paid, shall pay to the Commission so much of the performance bond or funds of the escrow account as does not exceed the amount of consumer redress or disgorgement ordered, and which remains unsatisfied at the time notice is provided to the surety company or escrow agent, provided that, if respondents have agreed to the entry of a court order or an order of the Commission, a specific finding that respondents violated the terms of this Order or the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act shall not be necessary. A copy of the notice provided for herein shall be mailed to respondent Weiss and/or respondent Franklin at their last known address.

Respondents Weiss and Franklin may not disclose the existence of the performance bond or escrow account to any consumer, or other purchaser or prospective purchaser, to whom a covered product, program, or device is advertised, promoted, offered for sale, sold, or distributed, without also disclosing at the same time and in a like manner that the performance bond or escrow account is required by order of the Federal Trade Commission in settlement of changes that respondents engaged in false and misleading representations.

VIII

It is further ordered That for five (5) years after the last date of dissemination of any representation covered by this Order, respondents, or their successors and assigns, shall maintain and upon request make available to the Federal Trade Commission or its staff for inspection and copying:

A. All materials that were relied upon in disseminating such representation; and

B. All tests, reports, studies, surveys, demonstrations or other evidence in their possession or control that contradict, qualify, or call into question such representation, or the basis relied upon for such representation, including complaints from consumers.

IX

It is further ordered That respondents, Original Marketing, Inc. and Franklin & Joseph, Inc., shall:

A. Within thirty (30) days after service of this Order, provide a copy of this Order to each of respondents' current principals, officers, directors and managers, and to all personnel, agents, and representatives having sales, advertising, or policy responsibility with respect to the subject matter of this Order; and

B. For a period of five (5) years from the date of issuance of this Order, provide a copy of this Order to each of respondents' future principals, officers, directors, and managers, and to all personnel, agents, and representatives having sales, advertising, or policy responsibility with respect to the subject matter of this Order who are associated with respondents or any subsidiary, successor, or assign, within three (3) days after the person assumes his or her position.

X

It is further ordered That respondents, Original Marketing, Inc. and Franklin & Joseph, Inc., shall notify the Federal Trade Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to any proposed change in their corporate structures, including but not limited to dissolution, assignment, or sale resulting in the emergence of a successor corporation, the creation or dissolution of subsidiaries or affiliates, the planned filing of a bankruptcy petition, or any other corporate change that may affect compliance obligations arising out of this Order.

XI

It is further ordered That respondents, Barry A. Weiss and Roger Franklin, shall, for a period of five (5) years from the date of issuance of this Order, notify the Commission within thirty (30) days of the discontinuance of his present business or employment and of his affiliation with any new business or employment. Each notice of affiliation with any new business or employment shall include respondents' new business address and telephone number, current home address, and a statement describing the nature of the business or employment and his duties and responsibilities.

XII

It is further ordered That respondents, Original Marketing, Inc. and Franklin & Joseph, Inc., corporations, their successors and assigns, and their officers; Barry A. Weiss, individually and as an officer and director of Original Marketing, Inc.; and Roger Franklin, individually and as an officer and director of Original Marketing, Inc. and Franklin & Joseph, Inc., shall, within sixty (60) days after service of this Order, and at such other times as the Federal Trade Commission may require, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this Order.

Analysis of Proposed Consent Order to Aid Public Comment

The Federal Trade Commission has accepted an agreement, subject to final approval, to a proposed consent order from proposed respondents Original Marketing, Inc. d/b/a Acu-Stop 2000; Franklin & Joseph, Inc.; Barry A. Weiss; and Roger Franklin.

The proposed consent order has been placed on the public record for sixty (60) days for reception of comments by interested persons. Comments received during this period will become part of the public record. After sixty (60) days, the Commission will again review the agreement and the comments received and will decide whether it should withdraw from the agreement and take other appropriate action or make final the agreement's proposed order.

This matter concerns advertising related to the sale of an ear-mold acupressure device, marketed under the name Acu-Stop 2000, which nests in the ear. The Commission's Complaint charges that proposed respondents Original Marketing, Inc. d/b/a Acu-Stop 2000; Franklin & Joseph, Inc.; Barry A. Weiss; and Roger Franklin falsely represented that the Acu-Stop 2000: (1) Causes significant weight loss; (2) causes significant weight loss without the need to diet or exercise; and (3) controls appetite or eliminates a person's craving for food.

The Complaint also alleges that proposed respondents falsely and misleadingly represented that they possessed and relied upon a reasonable basis when they made those claims. The Complaint further alleges that proposed respondents falsely represented that the Acu-Stop 2000 is scientifically proven to cause significant weight loss and control appetite.
