

AUTOCHARGE AGREEMENT
TO DELIVER AND CHARGE FOR SECURITIES AWARDED IN DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY AUCTIONS

This agreement is between _____ (“Submitter”), the person or entity submitting tenders for securities in Department of the Treasury (“Treasury”) auctions, and _____ (“DI”), the depository institution whose funds account at a Federal Reserve Bank will be charged for all marketable Treasury securities delivered pursuant to this agreement (“the parties”). This agreement applies to all marketable Treasury securities auctioned and issued pursuant to 31 CFR Part 356.

I. The parties agree that:

- (a) The Submitter may submit tenders for its own account and for the accounts of its customers, where authorized by 31 CFR Part 356, for marketable Treasury securities to be held in the commercial book-entry system.
- (b) The following delivery instructions are to be used by the Submitter:
Delivery Instructions: _____.
In the event of a discrepancy between the delivery instructions contained in the submission of bids and those contained in this agreement, the instructions in this agreement supersede those in the submission of bids.
- (c) The DI’s funds account at the Bank will be charged for all marketable Treasury securities delivered to it on behalf of the Submitter.

II. General Provisions

- (a) This agreement is effective on the latter of either the date specified by the parties, or the date the agreement is acknowledged by an official with the Treasury’s Bureau of the Public Debt (“BPD”) or with the Federal Reserve Bank of New York (“Bank”), Treasury’s fiscal agent for Treasury auctions, who is authorized to acknowledge this agreement (“an authorized BPD or Bank official”).

- (b) Prior to issuance of the securities, the DI will receive notice of the total par value of the securities to be delivered and the amount to be charged to its funds account, in accordance with 31 CFR Part 356.
- (c) The Submitter agrees that it is responsible to the Treasury to remit full payment for all securities it is awarded in Treasury auctions, including any securities awarded on behalf of its customers. The Submitter further agrees that it is responsible to the Treasury for full payment of all such securities awarded in the event that the Treasury does not receive full payment from the DI for all such securities awarded.
- (d) The Treasury may act on information in any tender in the name of the Submitter that reasonably appears to be valid and genuine.
- (e) The DI, by executing this agreement, guarantees the authority and signature of the person signing this agreement on behalf of the Submitter.

III. Termination of Agreement

- (a) In the event that this autocharge agreement is terminated, it is the sole responsibility of the party terminating the agreement to notify the other party in writing.
- (b) This autocharge agreement will remain in effect until an authorized BPD or Bank official has received written notice from either of the parties that the agreement has been terminated; provided that, if securities are scheduled to be delivered under this agreement, an authorized BPD or Bank official must receive and acknowledge such notice in accordance with the following termination procedures:
 - (i) As to termination action by the DI, an authorized BPD or Bank official must receive and acknowledge the written notice by 3:00 p.m. ET on the business day prior to the issue date of the securities scheduled to be delivered, except that where the auction and issue are on the same day, an authorized BPD or Bank official must receive and acknowledge the notice by no later than one hour after the BPD or the Bank has given the DI notice of the securities to be delivered;

- (ii) As to termination action by the Submitter after an auction but prior to the delivery of awarded securities, the written notice of termination will not be effective, and this agreement remains in full force and effect, unless the Submitter has provided to an authorized BPD or Bank official a new autocharge agreement executed by a depository institution having a funds account at a Federal Reserve Bank;
- (c) Termination action by the DI will not affect the Submitter's responsibility to remit full payment for the securities awarded.
