

Welcome To The Special Troops Battalion

“Always Reliable”

LTC Charles A. Stamm
Battalion Commander

CSM Thomas R. Moore
Command Sergeant Major

Always Reliable

Mission

STB, 1 SB provides administrative, logistics, signal and medical support to the brigade; provides command and control of assigned / attached units as directed. On order provide FM support to 1ID and FRKS ARFORGEN units.

BN CDR Command Priorities

- Build the team
 - Trust
 - Create/maintain a positive command climate
- Develop leaders and mentorship – two levels down
 - NCOES and OES
 - Counseling
- Prepare the battalion for the next mission
 - Battle focus training to standard
 - Property accountability
 - Equipment and personnel readiness
- Care for our Soldiers, families, and the community
 - Predictability
 - Reward
 - Good order and discipline
 - Create/maintain a safe environment

How I Operate - Leadership Style

- Positive and upbeat -- attitude is key
- Accessible -- try to be approachable
- Participative -- solicit input from key folks
- Informal and relaxed -- don't take myself too seriously, but do take job seriously
- Focus on empowerment; getting folks what they need and then let them run with the ball
- Treat all with dignity and respect; stress is NOT a performance enhancer

Want to enjoy life, my job, and people around me -- and treat them like I would expect to be treated

What I Expect from You

- ✓ Do what you are suppose to do, when you are suppose to do it, and do it the best that you can – be an example
- ✓ Dignity and respect
- ✓ Illegal, unethical, or immoral
- ✓ Think Safety – Composite Risk Management (CRM)
- ✓ Good order and discipline is a must - every Soldier deserves it
- ✓ Everyone deserves a second chance – not everyone deserves a third
- ✓ Zero defect – loss of a sensitive item, domestic abuse, drugs, and alcohol related incidents
- ✓ Take pride in your section, platoon, company, and battalion
- ✓ Use and support the chain of command – handle things at the lowest level
- ✓ Keep a positive outlook on life and the Army – the one thing you have complete control of is your attitude
- ✓ Do simple things well
- ✓ Be the best you can be every day and be a team player; work together cooperatively
- ✓ Take care of your subordinates and each other

I dislike...

- Lack of team work
- Abusive treatment
- Abuse of authority
- Poor military courtesy
- Integrity Issues
- Disloyalty
- Failure to communicate
- Failure to “close the loop”
- Passing the buck
- Tardiness
- Us vs Them mentality
- Reactive vs Proactive

POLICY LETTERS

Standards of Ethical Conduct	#12-1
Leave for Soldiers Pending Adverse Action	#12-2
Line of Sight Supervision Procedures	#12-3
Abuse of Over the Counter Medicines	#12-5
Limitation on Exercise of UCMJ Authority	#12-6
Off-Limits Establishments
--Bushwackers Manhattan, KS
--Gucianos Junction City, KS

Bottom Line

- Am honored and proud to be serving with you during this historic time in world history...
- The two biggest reasons I feel this way:
 - #1: WHAT WE ARE DOING IS VITALLY IMPORTANT
 - #2: EACH MEMBER OF OUR TEAM IS VITALLY IMPORTANT
- Looking forward to serving together... getting a tough job done well... ensuring the battalion accomplishes mission... helping each member of our team achieve their professional and personal objectives... and demonstrating the POWER of TEAMWORK!

This is the most important job I've ever had... You can count on me to give it – and you -- my very best !

Brigade and Battalion History

- The 1st Sustainment Brigade traces its origins to World War I
- After World War I, the Division relocated to Fort Riley, Kansas. In 1921, the Division Trains were consolidated into the Special Troops, 1st Infantry Division.
- The Special Troops deployed back to Europe to support the Big Red One during World War II, and participated in all eight campaigns credited to the 1st Infantry Division.
- In 1965, the Big Red One deployed to the Republic of South Vietnam, marking the third time that the Division participated in armed conflict.
- In 1990, the DISCOM deployed again, this time to Southwest Asia in support of Operation Desert Storm.
- In 2003, the DISCOM was deployed to Turkey in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom I.
- The DISCOM simultaneously supported peacekeeping operations in the Balkans and deployed a logistics task force to support Operation Iraqi Freedom I throughout Iraq.
- In 2004, the DISCOM deployed to Southwest Asia in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom II.
- The DISCOM headquarters moved back to Fort Riley, Kansas with the Big Red One in August 2006, and reorganized on February 15th, 2007, as the 1st Sustainment Brigade.
- On September 17th, 2007, the Special Troops Battalion, 1st Sustainment Brigade deployed to Iraq to provide sustainment, human resources, and financial management support to Multi-National Division-Baghdad.
- On April 13th, 2010, the Special Troops Battalion, 1st Sustainment Brigade deployed to Kuwait in support of OIF/Operation New Dawn and Operation Enduring Freedom to provide sustainment, human resources, and financial management support.
