

EASTERN CAROLINA ENVIRONMENTAL CONFERENCE

ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY IN EASTERN NC

May 9 & 10 2012

Please join us for the 2nd Annual Eastern Carolina Environmental Conference

Hosted by the Fleet Readiness Center East Environmental and Energy Program Division

Currently Scheduled: Keynote speaker Dee Freeman, Secretary, NCDENR and the Navy's F/A-18 Green Hornet (first 50/50 biofuel blend in supersonic operations)

Planned Topics include: Solar energy, Navy biofuel, Wind farm permitting, Landfill energy recovery, Zero waste and sustainability, Biochar, Water conservation, Shore protection and Coastal management, Stormwater permitting, EMS 101 as well as FRC East facility tour, breakout sessions and valuable networking opportunities

Presenters include: Coastal Environmental Partnership, Brooks Pierce Attorneys & Counselors, Kaselco Wastewater Treatment, NCDENR, NC Coastal Federation, NC Solar House, NC Marine Fisheries, US Army Corps of Engineers and NAVAIR Biofuels (Navy's Green Hornet)

Registration Deadline is April 20th, 2012

See registration form and brochure for complete list of topics