

Subchapter B Relocation Allowances

PART 302-3--RELOCATION ALLOWANCES BY SPECIFIC TYPE

Subpart C Types of Transfers
Overseas Assignment and Return

Sec.

302-3.207(a) What are the required time periods for completing an overseas assignment?

302-3.207(b) What is a local hire?

302-3.207(c) Are local hires living at a post of duty location eligible for an overseas assignment and/or tour renewal travel?

302-3.207(a) What are the required time periods for completing an overseas assignment?

The required periods for prescribed overseas assignments are:

Station	Minimum Tour
----------------	---------------------

Hawaiian Islands, Guam, and American Samoa.....	2 years
--	---------

All other islands in the Pacific area:
With family.....	2 years
Without family.....	1 year

Exceptions: Foreign areas.....	1 year unless otherwise indicated in service agreement
---------------------------------------	--

San Juan, Puerto Rico.....	2 years
----------------------------	---------

Alaska.....	2 years
-------------	---------

Exceptions: Barter Island, St. Paul Island, Cold Bay, Kotzebue, Barrow, and Adak.....	1 year
--	--------

302-3.207(b) What is a local hire?

A local hire is an employee who is living at a post of duty location, and then hired at the same post of duty location.

302-3.207(c) Are local hires living at a post of duty location eligible for an overseas assignment and/or tour renewal travel?

You must contact the servicing WFMO to determine if a local hire living at a post of duty location is eligible for an overseas assignment and/or tour renewal travel.