DOL releases over $450M n TAA funds	http://www.dol.gov/opa/media/pre ss/eta/eta20090637.htm	Press Release	U.S. Department of Labor released more than $450 million in additional funds for Trade Adjustment Assistance. Funds will go to states to provide career training, and employment and case management services to workers who lose their jobs due to outsourcing and foreign trade. The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (Recovery Act) includes a major expansion and reform of the TAA program to ensure that all U.S. workers negatively affected by trade have the skills, resources and support to gain new employment. The Recovery Act authorized an increase in the maximum amount of TAA funds that may be used for training nationwide from $220 million to $575	The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (Recovery Act) includes a major expansion and reform of the TAA program to ensure that all U.S. workers negatively affected by trade have the skills, resources and support to gain new employment.
