DOL releases $141.8M in UI funds to Tennessee	http://www.dol.gov/opa/media/press/eta/eta20090822.htm	Press Release	The U.S. Department of Labor has certified for release $141,808,031 in unemployment insurance (UI) modernization incentive funds to the state of Tennessee. Tennessee qualified for its full share of the funds available under the Recovery Act by providing for a variety of family friendly provisions that assist recent entrants to the workforce, workers seeking part-time work and workers with children. Sec. Hilda L. Solis noted Tennessee has made important updates to its UI program to better meet the needs of 21st century workers and their families.	The U.S. Department of Labor has certified for release $141,808,031 in unemployment insurance (UI) modernization incentive funds to the state of Tennessee. Tennessee qualified for its full share of the funds available under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (Recovery Act) by providing for a variety of family friendly provisions that assist recent entrants to the workforce, workers seeking part-time work and workers with children. "Tennessee has made important updates to its UI program to better meet the needs of 21st century workers and their families," said Secretary of Labor Hilda L. Solis. "Especially in times like this, it is essential that the safety net be expanded to include recent entrants to the workforce and part-time workers, and that jobless workers be able to support their families." "These Recovery Act funds represent another way in which vital support is being provided to workers and their families in auto communities in Tennessee," added Dr. Ed Montgomery, executive director of the White House Council on Automotive Communities and Workers.
