11/17/09 1:00pm	Amanda Ahlstrand, Division Chief Steve Rietzke, Workforce Analyst	The Manufacturing Advocacy and Growth Network (MAGNET) contacted ETA via the LNEGroup, which is the lobbying firm. They requested a meeting to update us on their work as a manufacturing extension partnership (MEP) center and the workforce challenges they and their business customers face in Northern Ohio. They provided an overview of their programs and their work with community colleges and the workforce system, and asked ETA staff about future funding opportunities. ETA staff provided a brief update that another round of funding will come out of the community-based job training grants, and to watch for other competitions related to pilots and demos.
