2010 Health Law: Members voted, 267-159, to repeal a section of the 2010 health law enabling workers to buy long-term-care insurance for paying health bills, remaining solvent and staying off Medicaid in old age. The administration already has suspended the program on grounds it is too costly to continue. A yes vote backed HR 1173.

Medicaid Cost Controls: Members rejected, 164-260, a bid by Democrats to delay the effective date of HR 1173 (above) until federal auditors certify that repealing the insurance program for long-term care would not raise state and federal Medicaid outlays. A yes vote was to adopt the amendment.

Washington Pay Freeze: Members voted, 309-117, to add one more year — through 2013 — to existing pay freezes for members of Congress and federal civil servants. A yes vote backed the bill over arguments it would penalize workers such as those who care for veterans and guard U.S. borders. (HR 3835)

Federal Aviation Budget: Members approved, 248-169, a federal aviation budget of $63.3 billion through September 2015. A yes vote was to pass a bill modernizing air-traffic control, subsidizing commercial flights to smaller cities and providing $13.4 billion for airport improvements. (HR 658)
