EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to refer to Your Excellency's note No. 39838 of August 31, 1937, informing me that the Mexican Government is prepared to enter into an agreement with the American Government providing for an exchange of official journals and parliamentary documents. It appears that a draft of this proposed agreement has already been approved by our respective Governments which have agreed that it shall take the form of an exchange of notes incorporating the text.

My Government is, therefore, prepared to give immediate effect to the following agreement as soon as a corresponding note may be received from Your Excellency:

1. The Government of the United States of America shall furnish regularly, immediately upon publication, one copy of each of the following publications: (a) the Federal Register, or any other general official gazette that may be published; (b) the Congressional Record, containing the debates of the Senate and of the House of Representatives; (c) Bills printed for the use of either the Senate or the House of Representatives; and (d) Hearings before Congressional committees.

2. The Government of the United Mexican States shall furnish regularly, immediately upon publication, one copy of each of the following publications: (a) the Diario Oficial, or any other general official gazette that may be published; (b) the Diario de los Debates of the Senate and of the Chamber of Deputies; (c) Bills printed for the use of either Chamber; and (d) Other documents printed for the use of either Chamber or of the committees of either Chamber.

3. The sendings shall be received on behalf of the United States of America by the Library of Congress; on behalf of the United Mexican States by the Departamento Autónomo de Publicidad y Propaganda."

Please accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest and most distinguished consideration.
