TIAS 2311
Apr. 25 and
May 23, 1951

The American Ambassador to the Pakistani Secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Commonwealth Relations

AMERICAN EMBASSY,
Karachi, April 25, 1951.

No. 206

SIR:

I have the honor to refer to the conversations which have taken place between representatives of the Government of the United States of America and representatives of the Government of Pakistan in regard to the exchange of official publications, and to inform you that the Government of the United States of America agrees that there shall be an exchange of official publications between the two Governments in accordance with the following provisions.

1. Each of the two Governments shall furnish regularly a copy of each of its official publications which is indicated in a selected list prepared by the other Government and communicated through diplomatic channels subsequent to the conclusion of the present agreement. The list of publications selected by each Government may be revised from time to time and may be extended, without the necessity of subsequent negotiations, to include any other official publication of the other Government not specified in the list, or publications of new offices which the other Government may establish in the future.

2. The official exchange office for the transmission of publications of the Government of the United States of America shall be the Smithsonian Institution. The official exchange office for the transmission of publications of the Government of Pakistan shall be the Manager of Publications under the Ministry of Industries.

3. The publications shall be received on behalf of the United States of America by the Library of Congress and on behalf of the Government of Pakistan by the Central Secretariat Library, c/o Education Division, Karachi.

4. The present agreement does not obligate either of the two Governments to furnish blank forms, circulars which are not of a public character, or confidential publications.

5. Each of the two Governments shall bear all charges, including postal, rail and shipping costs, arising under the present agreement in connection with the transportation within its own country of the publications of both Governments and the shipment of its own publications to a port or other appropriate place reasonably convenient to the exchange office of the other Government.

6. The present agreement shall not be considered as a modification of any existing exchange agreement between a department or agency of one of the Governments and a department or agency of the other Government.

Upon the receipt of a note from you indicating that the foregoing provisions are acceptable to the Government of Pakistan, the Government of the United States of America will consider that this note and your reply constitute an agreement between the two Governments on this subject, the agreement to enter into force on the date of your note in reply.

Accept, Sir, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

M. IKRAMULLAH, Esquire,
Secretary,
Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and Commonwealth Relations.

The Pakistani Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Commonwealth Relations to the American Embassy

 COMMONWEALTH RELATIONS
 KARACHI

No. EA/1/25/51.

Dated the 23rd May, 1951.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Commonwealth Relations present their compliments to the Embassy of the United States of America in Pakistan and with reference to the Embassy's Note No. 206, dated the 25th April, 1951, regarding the agreement for the exchange of official publications between the Governments of the United States of America and Pakistan, have the honour to say that the Government of Pakistan agree to conclude the said agreement in accordance with the following provisions:—

1. Each of the two Governments shall furnish regularly a copy of each of its official publications which is indicated in a selected list prepared by the other Governments and communicated through diplomatic channels subsequent to the conclusion of the present agreement. The list of publications selected by each Government may be revised from time to time and may be extended, without the necessity of subsequent negotiations, to include any other official publication of the other Government not specified in the list, or publications of new offices which the other Government may establish in the future.

2. The official exchange office for the transmission of publications of the Government of the United States of America shall be the Smithsonian Institution. The official exchange office for the transmission of publications of the Government of Pakistan shall be the Manager of Publications under the Ministry of Industries.

3. The Publications shall be received on behalf of the United States of America by the Library of Congress and on behalf of the Government of Pakistan by the Central Secretariat Library, c/o Education Division, Karachi.

4. The present agreement does not obligate either of the two Governments to furnish blank forms, circulars which are not of a public character, or confidential publications.

5. Each of the two Governments shall bear all charges, including postal, rail and shipping costs, arising under the present agreement in connection with the transportation within its own country of the publications of both Governments and the shipment of its own publications to a port or other appropriate place reasonably convenient to the exchange office of the other Government.

6. The present agreement shall not be considered as a modification of any existing exchange agreement between a department or agency of one of the Governments and a department or agency of the other Government.

2. In terms of the penultimate para of the Embassy's note under reference the agreement between the two Governments will come in force on the date of this note.

The Ministry avail themselves of this opportunity to renew to the Embassy the assurances of their highest consideration.
