Dear Carol:

The FFTA conference was the best conference we've ever organized according to feedback from the participants. We appreciate very much you taking time from your busy and very demanding schedule to meet with our board of directors.

We are very concerned about services to children and families and the impact necessary changes will create in the provision of quality care. I think many of us are in agreement that change needs to happen but we want to ensure that quality is not compromised for quantity.

Thank you for your invitation to discuss these issues in a more global fashion. We certainly are interested in such dialog and will be in contact with you to make arrangements possibly in January or February.

In the midst of all your demands I hope you won't forget to "stop and smell the roses" - there are some, even in Washington!

Sincerely,

Consevilla James
